	42nd Bn.		Capt, Ewing George THOMSON R.M.O.	During Operations East of MESSINES on the 31st July 1917, this Medical Officer, rendered invaluable service to his Battalion in the rapid evacuation of casualties, under very difficult conditions. He carried out the main part of his work in the open under heavy shell fire, showing throughout absolute disregard for his personal safety. In 10 hours he passed 200 casualties through the Aid post, personally attending to each case.	E. A. McCulloch BRIGADIER GENERAL COMMANDING 11th INF. BRIGADE	Thirty Days Special Leave
