	42nd Battn.	1167	Pte. Thomas McGUIRE.	On the 31st July 1917, East of WARNETON - GAPAARD ROAD, this man showed great dash and bravery duringnthe action against enemy strong points. He led a section of men against a strong point close to the final objective which was holding up the centre of the advance, by a heavy bomb barrage. Heedless of the danger, he rushed through the barrage followed by his men and his timely action allowed the advance to be continued at once. A number of the enemy were killed and wounded and the remainder fled through our barrage. His conduct during tne whole operation was most aggressive and men followed him willingly as a leader. He has previously distinguished HIMSELF in action and on patrol duty.	Alleinekerke A. BRIGADIER GENERAL, COMMANDING 11TH INF. BDE. A.I.F.	Mention in Despatches.
