	42nd Battn.	2943	pte. Mortimer O'SULLIVAN.	On the 31st July 1917, East of MESSINES, this man acted as stretcher bearer in the offensive. He carried out his duties throughout the day with very marked courage and devotion to duty making trip after trip backwards and forwards until completely exhausted. After that, he continued to render first aid at the advanced line and even when wounded in the arm refused to retire until he could do no more. His devotion to duty afforded an excellent example to the large number of men who were witnesses of his gallant conduct.	Hellmuth Cole BRIGADIER GENERAL, COMMANDING-11th-INF.-BDE.-A.I.F.
