	42nd Bn. 22nd.	2164.	Pte. Horatio SUTTON.	This man, on the 31st July 1917 between 4 a.m. and 12 midnight, displayed great courage and devotion to duty while acting as a stretcher bearer in action North of the DOUVE RIVER. He followed the platoon in the assault to the final objective and cleared all the dead and the wounded from the land that was later on to be evacuated. During this work he was continually under artillery and machine gun fire. On the withdrawal of the assaulting troops he helped to remove the wounded from NO MAN'S LAND. Throughout the day he worked incessantly despite the heavy bombardments and it is greatly due to his untiring efforts that all casualties in advance of our lines were successfully brought in.
