	43rd Bn.	582	Pte. George William SMALLCOMBE.	On the July 31st 1917, North of the RIVER DOUVE, this man was a member of a carrying party, carrying wire, posts, and sand bags to a captured enemy strong Post. Communication Trench had not yet been dug, which necessitated the party moving over-land. The enemy was shelling heavily, in this vicinity, and he also opened up direct machine gun fire on this party, during which one was killed, the remainder took cover, but this man proceeded and was the only man to reach the Post with the much needed material, before the C.T. had been dug. Previously to this he had been wounded slightly on two occasions, but continued to carry on. ~~His gallantry and devotion to duty was re-markable.~~ Witnessed by 2/Lieut H. .
