	43rd Battn.	563	pte. Frank Dean STILLWELL.	On the 31st July 1917, East of MESSINES, this man was one of a Lewis Gun team in an attack. After the majority of the team had been wounded he took charge of the Gun. He showed great ability and courage under heavy enemy fire. Mainly through his coolness and persistence with which he worked his gun, the enemy was forced to retire after attempting a counter-attack in numbers. He also gave valuable assistance in dressing the wounded. Witnessed by 2/Lieut T.W.B. ROBERTS.	Hilliard Cole BRIGADIER GENERAL COMMANDING 11th INF. BDE. A.I.F.	Mention in Despatches
