	44th Bn.	2135a	Pte Charles Blackett PEARSON. M.M.	This man was a stretcher bearer in the assault East of Messines on July 31st 1917. During the night our front line trench was blown in, with resulting casualties. Pte PEARSON at once reported on the spot and proceeded to attend to the wounded in his characteristic, calm manner, only ceasing in his endeavours when he himself was wounded on the way to the Dressing Station with a stretcher case. His conduct in the performance of these duties was always of a very high order. During the daylight raid under Lieut GAZE at ST YVES, on June 4th 1917, he put up a very fine performance, for which he was awarded the Military Medal.	BRIGADIER GENERAL COMMANDING [illegible] BDE.
