William Johnstone

A. I. F.

COWLEY

On 17th October, 1917, East of YPRAS
for conspicuous devotion to duty in action.

During the advance, he was wounded.
But organised a carrying party to go to the rear and bring back ammunition. On his return he assisted in consolidation and took charge of a post throughout the night. He finally consented to go back and have his wounds dressed, only when ordered to do so by an Officer.
