| 4th.Battn. | 280 | Private Patrick SOUTH. | During the action at POZIERES, FRANCE, 23/24th. July 1916, Pte.SOUTH was a stretcher bearer and worked for 48 hours without ceasing, attending to and carrying away wounded under the heaviest fire. He was regardless of danger and by his courage and coolness succeeded in rescuing many men who must have been killed but for his prompt action. | G.O.C. 1st.Inf. Brigade | Military Medal | |
| 4th.Battn. | 45 | Sergeant Gilbert Henderson HILL | At POZIERES, FRANCE, on night of July 22/23rd. 1916, Sgt.HILL with his platoon ~~on night~~ became separated from the rest of his Coy. but he skilfully handled the men under him, led them to the required line and eventually established connection again. He was remarkably cool and courageous under fire and was very prominent in organising the work of consolidating and in gathering information about the enemy. | G.O.C. 1st.Inf. Brigade | Military Medal | |
| 4th.Battn. | 2828 | Lance Corporal John Pauline SIVES. | At POZIERES, FRANCE, on 25th.July 1916, L/Cpl. SIVES in attack on a German trench did splendid service. He was extremely cool and courageous under fire and by his judicious and dashing handling of the Lewis Guns helped the bombers to gain and retain their positions. | G.O.C. 1st.Inf. Brigade | Military Medal | |
