

1st. Australian

1st. A & N.Z. Army

July 30th. 1916.

✓
A.A.H.C. attached
3rd. Battn.

Captain
Samuel Charles FITZPATRICK.

At POZIERES, FRANCE, during the period 25/28th.
July 1916, Captain FITZPATRICK displayed great bravery in dressing wounded in the open under heavy shell fire.

G.O.C.
1st. Inf. Brigade
Military Cross.

He worked continuously for four days among the wounded with little rest or sleep, and set a splendid example of that devotion to duty which cannot be too highly praised.

Major General, Commanding 1st. Aust. Division.

