|                                    | 17th Bn.(Commanding) |            | Lt. ColonelEdward PowellMARTIN | For his excellent work during the whole period his unit has been operating in France. At BOIS GRENIER he proved himself a good organiser and capable administrator, and whilst operating on the SOMME he did excellently at all times, particularly during a bombing attack by the enemy on his front in the vicinity of MUNSTER ALLEY on 26th/27th July 1916. He was indefatigable in his efforts which were rewarded with success. He was unremitting in his attention to his unit during the whole of its tour of duty in the trenches and could scarcely be prevailed upon to relinquish his post for absolutely necessary rest. | W.
