

234 Corporal Stewart, Benjamin

gave his section Officer when digging assembly trenches in front of Whale trench in the Main's and under heavy machine guns and shell fire

236 2nd Lt. Peilly, Andrew for the fine manner in which he kept up the spirit of the other sappers when digging assembly trenches in the Main's and in advance of Goose trench, where both Machine Gun fire & Shell fire was very bad

33 Corporal Addison, George

for his excellent work in getting communications through in a series of deep dugouts in Fritz's valley.

179 Corporal Speed, Samuel

for the great devotion to duty in that he for 32 days in spite of most trying conditions struggled on with the building of ports throughout the front line and in spite of the fact that were frequently blown in. It is largely on account of this N.C.O.'s devotion that the ports were provided for practically all Infantry Ports in the front line in the Left front.

385 Corporal Irvine, William John for his great devotion to duty, in that he for 32 days, in spite of most trying conditions, struggled on with the building of ports throughout the front line and in spite
