

Divisional Engineers

1st.Australian

1st.A.&N.Z.Army

9th.October 1917.

2nd.Field
Company
Engineers.
A.I.F.

4493

Sapper

George DEWSNAP✓

During the preparations for the operations east of YPRES on 1st.October 1917, Sapper DEWSNAP was one of a party which came under heavy shell fire, whilst proceeding ~~xxx~~ to the forward area. Seeing an N.C.O. badly wounded he dashed out from cover and with the utmost bravery, under heavy fire, conducted the wounded man to a place of safety, dressed his wounds and saw him safely to the dressing station. He set an admirable example of devotion to duty under extremely dangerous circumstances.

C.R.E.,
1st.Aust
Division.
Military
Medal.

2nd.Field
Company
Engineers.
A.I.F.

2252

Sapper

Ernest Fred

NICKELSON.

7 name

During the operations east of YPRES on 4th. October 1917, Sapper NICKELSON was employed as a Company Runner between strong post near the front line to Brigade Headquarters in WESTHOEK. He successfully carried despatches a distance of over 1800 yards through intense barrages, displaying great skill and devotion to duty.

C.R.E.,
1st.Aust.
Division.
Military
Medal.

S. C. C. C.
Lieut.Colonel,
C.R.E., 1st.Australian Division.