	9th. Aust. Inf. Bn.	6720.	Driver George CLARK.	At VILLERET on the 18th. September 1918, Dvr. CLARK showed great courage and devotion to duty, in trans-portioning water and rations forward under heavy shell fire. On doing so, he was Gassed, but managed to complete his task and returned to the lines, where he collapsed. As an example of devotion to duty under trying circumstances, this Driver's performance is one well worthy of reward.	C. C. 9th.
