	11th Battalion	1402	Sergeant READ, GEORGE HENRY	During the attack near VILLERET on 18th September, 1918, this N.C.O. showed most conspicuous gallantry and splendid devotion to duty. When the attack commenced Sergt. READ was in command of the Right Flank Platoon of the Battalion and led his men forward until held up by an enemy post of one machine gun and 10 men. Under intense fire he immediately rushed the post, personally killing two and capturing the remainder of the garrison. Later when 50% of his platoon had become casualties he reorganised his men and formed a defensive Right flank, personally maintaining liaison with the Attacking Battalion on our Right. Owing to this N.C.O.'s utter disregard of personal danger, he set a splendid example to his platoon.	Co " 4 3rd	C. de G.
