	39th. Battalion	585	Lance-Corporal RIDDOCH , James.	For consistent good work and devotion to duty During the whole time in France this N.C.O. has had charge of the feeding and care of animals. These duties he has ^{most} more ^{faithfully} performed. Sick and wounded animals which would have otherwise had to be evacuated, were treated and restored to working fitness by him. The Battalion losses in horseflesh throughout have been exceedingly light, and this is mainly due to the good management, devotion to duty and untiring efforts of the abovenamed soldier.	C. S.
