39, 3 59	let Tunnellin Company Aust.Engre.	5	Lieut Welter John WHETTAM	The construction of an entrance into the captured enemy Tunnelled Dugouts system in the Mound, Polygon Wood, from the Morth End was of extreme urgency as all the entrances facing the enemy line were continually under shall and rifle fire. The fact that working under great difficulty, and though continually under fire the work was successfully accomplished. Lieut. Whettam set a fine example of courage, determination, and resourse. The casualties amongst his party were heavy. He himself assis many times in the actual labor. He was 48 hour without rest.	Hustrein The	M.C.
