	55th. Australian Infantry Battalion.		Lieut.-Colonel Percy W WOODS, D.S.O., M.C.	For conspicuous devotion to duty while in command of his battalion. Since 21st March last Lieut.-Colonel WOODS has been continuously with his unit, which has been called on to perform many arduous duties. Although on two occasions suffering severely from gas, he has remained at his post, and through his energies retained a thorough hold on his battalion under most trying conditions and setting an example in his unit which has been of the greatest value. Lieut.-Colonel WOODS has been continuously with his unit since 1914, having received his Commission on GALLIPOLI in 1915.	J. G. G. G. G. Brig.-General, Commanding 14th. Aust. Inf. Brigade.
