	21st Battery 22nd F.A. Bde.		Lieutenant Guthbert Cyril CHILDS WRIB	At ARRAS-THIENNES and particularly on the 20th and 21st most valuable work as Forward Observing Officer. He has shown consistent gallantry under heavy fire.		M.C.
	12th Battery 4th F.A. Bde.		Lieutenant Charles Vanden REES	On several occasions has made reconnaissances beyond our front line in the vicinity of POZIERES and obtained valuable information. He has shown great devotion to duty and from March to present date has rendered excellent service.		M.C.
	103th Hsq. Bty. 5th F.A. Bde.		Lieutenant BLAKE	Shewed conspicuous and continued gallantry during the POZIERES operations. On 21/8/1916 this Officer made a complete survey of the actual line held by our troops from N.E. of POZIERES to ROUQUET FARM. This information was necessary for artillery barrage purposes. He supplied excellent reports and continually volunteered for this work which he often performed under heavy fire.		M.C.
	16th Battery 6th F.A. Bde.		Lieutenant James William VINLAY	As Forward Observing Officer he reconnoitred the whole of our front line and procured valuable information on 27th August and 31st August and 3rd September. On 31st August he persevered after having been shelled out of his post four times. He continued this excellent work until wounded on 3rd September.		M.C.
