	22nd Bn.	-	Captain John Sylvester DOOLEY	For conspicuous coolness and ability in command of his company in action near FLERS on 14th instant. On the trenches occupied by his company being heavily bombarded by the enemy he moved his men forward about 120 yards and occupied shell craters till dusk. Whilst his own trenches were practically destroyed the company had only 3 casualties. In view of our own Artillery fire this movement required the nicest calculation and coolness of judgment. COMMANDING 1ST A.N.Z.
