	20th Bn.		Lieutenant Frank Sunderland HALL.	For conspicuous gallantry in action on the afternoon of 25th February near WARLENCOURT. Having been given orders for his Company to advance on LeBARQUE Trench, he organised his men excellently, showing an example to all ranks of the greatest coolness and courage under heavy W/G. fire. As a result of his skilful handling of his Company casualties were comparatively light despite heavy fire. The enemy were astounded at the swiftness with which the assault followed the lifting of the barrage. He occupied the trench and organised it for defence with admirable judgment.	G. O. C. 5th.
