	24th Bn.	434	L/Corporal Julius Arthur HOLMES	Near BAPAUME on March 13th with utter disregard for personal safety this N.C.O. continually ran and maintained telephone lines to advanced stations, during 60 hours of almost continuous duty. He was under M.G. and shell fire the whole time, and the lines were frequently broken by shells. The efficient and rapid manner in which the work was done reflects great credit on L/Cpl. HOLMES' initiative and devotion to duty.	G. O. C. 6th. Aust. Infantry Brigade.	K. M.	RR
	24th Bn.	5919	L/Corporal George Morby INGRAM	During an attack on the enemy position on BAPAUME RIDGE on the night of 15th 16th March this N.C.O. showed great courage and initiative as member of a bombing section. It was mainly owing to the excellent placing of his bombs, that the enemy bombers, who greatly outnumbered our men, were held off. Later when the enemy returned in force this N.C.O. with 2 men covered the retirement of his party, and by deadly sniping held the attackers off thereby averting serious loss to our bombing party.	G.
