	14th Field Co.		Major HEINRICH BACHTOLD	In connection with the operations at PETILLON on 19th/20th July 1916, Major BACHTOLD showed marked ability in his preparations for the attack. He kept in touch with all his Company throughout the operations and displayed excellent judgement in his organization and control of the work. He succeeded in completing a communication sap, properly zig-zagged, some 585' long, affording excellent cover, and trench boarded almost its entire length, which proved of the utmost value to our troops.	Antony Lt.
