CLASSIFICATION SUPSECTION	15th. Battal- ion Austral- ian Infantry.	5700	LANCE CORPORAL WILLIAM PERCY JONES.	Is recommended for exceptionally conspictions bravery during attack on HINDENBURG LINE South of REINCOURT on 11th. April 1917. This N.C.C. was in charge of his Platoons Lewis Gun and in the assault he directed his team through enemy's wire under fierce enemy M.G. and Artillery Fire. When S.A.A. began to run on he crawled out into NO Mans Land and collected Magazines and Ammunition and Bombs from casualties over ground swept by enemy fire and was able to maintain a continuous fire from his Lewis Gun He also assisted in removing a Vickers Gun after all its crew except one had been killed and remounting it in a better position during the fighting this Lance Corporal set a splendid example to the men. During the retirement he dragged wounded men into shell holes and dressed their wounds, showing an utter disregard for his own safety, a splendid courage and devotion to do in an unequal fight worthy of the best traditions His exceptional performance is worthy of the highest award.	t de la constant de l	DCI.
