	16th BATTN.	2699	Private ROBERT William Richard. ROGERS	Is brought to notice for the splendid fighting qualities he displayed in the advance on the HINDENBURG Line in front of REINCOURT on the morning of the 11th April 1917, and subsequently in the bomb fights which took place after a footing had been obtained there, and later when the supply of bombs was practically exhausted and the situation was becoming desperate, he went out over the top under a most withering fire from Machine Guns and collected bombs from the pockets of the dead men who were lying among the wire. This act of extraordinary gallantry was repeated on a number of occasions. He is strongly recommended for distinction.
	16th BATTN.	1684	Private THOMAS Thomas Campbell CALDWELL	Is brought under notice for the very fine work performed by him throughout the attack on the HINDENBURG Line on the morning of the 11th April 1917. He displayed absolute fearlessness in advancing to the second objective through uncut wire, and it was in a great measure due to his splendid example that so many men attained to the second objective in this way. He was among the last at all times to retire along the trench when the enemy started to overwhelm our men on account of lack of bombs and ammunition. He was instrumental in repulsing with heavy loss many heavy bombing attacks by the enemy. His devotion to duty and coolness whilst under heavy bombing was magnificent. He is strongly recommended for distinction.
