

DATE	UNIT	REGTL No.	RANK	NAME	ACTION FOR WHICH RECOMMENDED	RECOMMENDED BY	HONOUR OR AWARD	RESULT
23.12.18.	12th A.L.H. REGIMENT	368.	SIGNLLR.	Edward QUINN.	For gallantry in maintaining signalling communications under fire at SEMAKH while with his troop on detached duty	O.C. 12th A.L.H. REGIMENT	M.M.	AWARDED M.M. LIST 399 29.12.18.
	4th A.L.H. REGIMENT	521	SERGT.	Arthur Victor BOND	This N.C.O displayed exceptional courage and resource during the advance, to KAU KAB on 30/9/18. With a patrol he galloped in under very heavy fire between two parties of the enemy who were endeavouring to reunite and succeeded in holding our party up while the other was captured by our forces. He then charged the party, dispersing and capturing all remaining.	O.C. 4th. A.L.H. REGIMENT	M.M.	AWARDED M.M. LIST 399 29.12.18.
	4th A.L.H. REGIMENT	264	F.Q.M.S.	Frederick GILL	For courage and devotion to duty. On 25/9/18, during the crossing of the JORDAN near EL MIN he performed invaluable work in assisting with the horses under heavy fire and during the advance to MEIDAN railway station on 14 October he succeeded in fighting his way with a revolver and leading horses to these men who had become dismounted and were fighting at close quarters with a superior force of the enemy.	O.C. 4th. L.H. REGIMENT	M.M.	AWARDED M.M. LIST 399 29.12.18.
	11th L.H. REGIMENT	1772	TROOPER	Clive Dare BONFIELD	At SEMAKH on 25/9/1918, in the attack on his place his man displayed great energy and courage in subduing the enemy. He heard orders given to capture intact any motor boat that were at the pier. He consequently as soon as the troops charged through the town, galloped down to the pier and was just in time to jump on a motor boat as it moved out. Unfortunately he lost his rifle in the water but quite undaunted he attacked the engine driver with his fists. Several men came up from the hold of the boat and as this man was alone and without possibility of help, he jumped overboard and swam ashore. His action in attempting to capture this boat is worthy of the highest praise.	O.C. 11th. L.H. REGIMENT	M.M.	AWARDED M.M. LIST 399 29.12.18.