

9th Bn. Lieut. James William King

Near LE BARQUE, FRANCE, on the 24/26th Feby. 1917, Lieut. King was in charge of one of the forward dumps. He remained on duty night and day throughout the operation and rendered most valuable service in getting food, bombs, water, and all other stores to the front line. The dump was continually under heavy shell fire nevertheless this Officer remained at his post and by his coolness, initiative and foresight, considerably influenced the success of the operation. Previously ~~was~~ recommended but not rewarded.

MM

HUBERT Finter.

Near LE BARQUE, FRANCE, on the 24/26th Feby. 1917, Lieut. Finter was in charge of one of the forward dumps. He remained on duty night and day throughout the operation and rendered most valuable service in getting food, bombs, water and all other stores to the front line. The dump was continually under heavy shell fire nevertheless this Officer remained at his post and by his coolness, initiative and foresight, considerable influenced the success of the operation. Not previously recommended or ~~rewards~~ rewarded.

MM

Lieut. Frederic Donaldson

Near LE BARQUE, FRANCE, on the 24/26th Feby. 1917, Lieut. Donaldson displayed great bravery, skill and initiative. His brilliant example inspired all ranks under his command. At one period of the engagement when