| | 14th Batt- alion A.I.F. | 392 | Sergeant Charles THOMPSON. | During the operations near ZONNEBEKE on 26th Sep- tember, 1917, the Platoon Commander to which this N.C.O. belonged became a casualty just as the objective was reached; he immediately took charge and superintended the work of consolidation. He made a personal reconnaissance of the front of their position and under heavy machine gun fire had wire entanglements erected. He displayed great courage and initiative throughout the whole operation and set a splendid example to his platoon. (Awarded Military Medal 1917) (Awarded Medal 1917) Major-General.
