	1st A.L.H. F. Am.	3	H.Q.M.S. Charles WARDEN. D.C.M.	He has done excellent work, particularly as pharmacist, both day and night, during the period in which the Anzac Div. Collecting Station has been formed at SUWEILEH and AMMAN. 25/9/18 to 12/10/18 - always keen, improvising with often little material, and at all times showed great devotion to duty. He was one of the mainstays at the Collecting Station and only for disability and that of S/Sgt Stanger-Leathers there would have been chaos. He assisted in the treatment and care of the 1002 patients who passed through. Owing to some of his nursing staff becoming infected through being ill with malignant Malaria, his work was greatly increased, and owing to evacuations only occurring every 48 hours, with the result that the number of patients in hospital for one night rose to over 200. This N.C.O. was frequently on duty for periods of 24 hours.	C.R. Hodgson. Capt. Div. O.C. 1st A.L.H. Col. 1st A.L.H. Amb. Immobile - Section) M.W. Lane. Lieut-Col. C.O. 1st D.H.F.A.
