On the night of the 12th December 1917 near Hill 215, 4000 yards S.W. of MULEBANS, about 2030, 5 Turks surrounded the No. 6 Post. held by Lieut. L. W. Davies' Troop. It was understood that ~~there~~ there was a considerable body of Turks willing to come in, but they were afraid to.
It was decided to send a party with one of the Turks & see if the Turks were there. Lieut. Davies took Sgt. Maynard & the Dobbs with him, going some 1200 yards from No. 6 Post & getting behind the enemy's forward line. Another 20 Turks were brought in, making a total of 27.
Both going out & returning & whilst waiting for the prisoners the party was fired on.
