DID YOU KNOW ?

Mataranka is home to Jeanie Gunn, who wrote the famous book about Elsey Stations titled 'We of the Never Never', part of Australia's folklore. Worth visiting are Elsey National Park, Roper River and Mataranka Springs. Roper River named for John Roper of the Leichhardt's expedition of 1845 is a great place to catch barramundi.

Mataranka is located on the Stuart Highway, 431 kms south east of Darwin.
