DID YOU KNOW ?

Borroloola is more of a scattering of communities than a town along the McArthur River. It is so famous for fishing that people arrive in the 'dry' season and set up camp for months. It was an outpost and hideout for illegal activity but these days it is a remarkably friendly place.

The Limmen National Park and Caranbirini Conservation Reserve are a must visit.

NEWS AND VIEWS FROM AROUND

BONG TOWN

Australia is renowned for its 'big' tourist attractions and Paul Pearson, an artist from northern NSW reckons he has come up with the most extraordinary tourist attraction yet - a giant wooden bong for his home town of Woodenbong.
