

An Australian work experience with us:

Volunteer internship:

If you are a volunteer student from overseas or Australia who are studying tourism, marketing, business, communications or international trade and you need a work experience in a tourism company for 3 or 6 months please note that opportunities exist at Captain Cook Cruises.

You will work predominately in the sales and marketing department, learning as much as you can about our Cruises and the tourism market in Australia. You will also assist the accounts department once a week, and various other departments on an ad hoc basis. You will be doing various types of tasks by assisting the department you will be working for.

Interns at Captain Cook Cruises play a crucial role in our day to day business practice. Applicants are encouraged to be flexible, have a keen desire to learn about the tourism industry and be willing to complete a broad range of tasks. Successful applicants will be working with other interns from various nationalities providing a fulfilling and diverse work environment.

Sydney Harbour - Captain Cook Cruises

Captain Cook Cruises began in Sydney in 1970 and for over four decades has proven to be the market leader and premier Sydney Harbour cruise line. Our fleet of restaurant, sightseeing, ferry and sailing vessels offer an exciting range of public cruises and private charters for 2 to 2000 guests.

Some of our guests and events have included the Pope, the Presidents of China and the United States of America, Vice Chancellor of Germany, members of the British Royal family, the American basketball 'Dream Team'; Incentives for Ford, Amway, Mazda and Nissan; the Supreme and Federal Courts Judges Conference, Commonwealth Games Fundraising Dinners and the Oprah audience – to name just a few. We are proud to have provided employment opportunity for thousands of young Australians, many of whom have gone on to become leaders in their fields including actor Hugh Jackman.

Captain Cook Cruises Australia is proud to be part of the SeaLink Travel Group connecting the nation's icons and best tour experiences to the world.

South Australia

South Australia is a state of many contrasts with rugged outback wilderness, scenic mountain ranges, an extensive coastline, Kangaroo Island, Murray River, Barossa Valley, Adelaide and the beautiful Adelaide Hills. A wine and food centre with 13 wine regions.

Murray River - Captain Cook Cruises

Captain Cook Cruises Murray River operates the largest inland paddlewheeler in the Southern hemisphere "Murray Princess" from Mannum South Australia. A choice of three to seven night cruises offers a true outback river adventure for up to 120 guests through towering sandstone gorges, ancient red gums forests and flood plains.

Kangaroo Island

Kangaroo Island is a natural wonder and a treasure trove of beauty, wildlife, pristine beaches, untouched bushland, wine and amazing fresh produce, especially seafood. A journey to Kangaroo Island will really refresh the soul and you'll feel like you are a million miles away, even though you are only a 45 minute ferry ride from the mainland.

Adelaide & the Adelaide Hills

Adelaide is the capital city and boasts an elegant, easy-living lifestyle with great festivals, live music events, galleries, design and fashion houses, theatre and architecture. It's an easy city to get around and easy to get out of when you want to visit some of our famous regions! The Adelaide Hills is just a 20 minute drive from Adelaide through the Mount Lofty Ranges with stunning views across the city right through to the coast. Here you'll find some of Australia's best cool-climate wines and incredible restaurants and cellar doors. Australia's oldest German village, Hahndorf is also a 'must' visit for all visitors to South Australia.

Queensland & Northern Territory

Magnetic Island & Townsville – SeaLink Queensland

Home to Northern Australia's largest population of wild koalas, Magnetic Island has an abundance of bird life and native Australian animals for nature enthusiasts. Don't miss the chance to feed rock wallabies and spot sea turtles, dugongs and whales from the island.

Townsville, North Queensland's capital, offers a diverse range of experiences from island life with the Great Barrier Reef Marine Park, city sights, tropical rainforest to the rustic outback.

Stradbroke Island – SeaLink South East Queensland

Stradbroke Island is one of the largest sand islands in the world with the ferry terminal being only a 45 minute drive from Brisbane and just over an hour from the Gold Coast. "Straddie", as the locals call it, is blessed with white sandy beaches, magnificent inland lakes and scenic walks. From June to November each year the majestic Humpback Whales pass the headlands on their annual migration. Island activities include bush walking, four wheel driving, sand boarding, kayaking and snorkeling just to name a few. The island is also well known for its surfing and scuba diving, with dive trips departing from the beach.

Mandorah & Tiwi Islands – SeaLink Northern Territory

The quickest link between Darwin, Mandorah and the Tiwi Islands including Bathurst Island

Captain Cook Cruises Perth

Perth – Captain Cook Cruises

Captain Cook Cruises (WA) has been cruising the waterways of Perth since 1980. Since then, they have firmly established ourselves as Perth's Premier Cruise Company with a fleet of seven luxurious vessels. Throughout our 35 years of operation we have shown thousands of tourists the very best of the Swan River.

Located on the footstep of the Perth CBD, Western Australia, we offer a wide range of cruise options from Perth to our Port City of Fremantle or upstream, towards the magnificent Swan Valley wine region.
