The lake's unique features have been shaped by nature - strange lava formations, many kinds of volcanic craters and beautiful bays filled with thousands of birds and ducks. Stop at the bizarre lava formations at Kálfaströnd followed by a walk around the many pseudo craters. Stroll through the mysterious lava field of Dimmuborgir and see the tephra cone Hverfjall.

End an exciting day with a relaxing soak at Mývatn Nature Baths which contain a unique blend of minerals, silicates and geothermal micro-organisms. The warm, soothing waters benefit both skin and spirit alike.

After lunch (not included), you will see the hot springs area of Námaskarð with bubbling mud pools and steaming solfataras. Then head through the uninhabited highlands and moon-like surroundings to East Iceland. With some luck, you might spot an arctic fox or reindeer.

Walk on the black sandy beach, where large icebergs often get stranded. Depending on the season, you can take the opportunity to join an optional boat trip (not included). The world-famous Reynisfjara shore, near the village Vík, is widely regarded as the most impressive black sand and pebble beach in Iceland and features an amazing cliff of regular basalt columns resembling a rocky step pyramid. Out in the sea are the spectacularly shaped basalt sea stacks Reynisdrangar. In the small village of Skógar, you will see Skógafoss waterfall, which is 62m high and is one of the most impressive waterfalls in the country.

Further west you will stop at the Eyjafjallajökull Information Centre and learn about living next to a glacier and an active volcano.
