Day 6 Cape Town - Nelspruit - Kruger National Park - Mjejane River Lodge

This morning you will be picked up and transferred to Cape Town Airport in time for your flight onwards to Nelspruit. On arrival, you will be met and transferred to Mjejane River Lodge in the Kruger National Park (approx. 1-1.5 hours from airport to safari lodge) where you may enjoy the remainder of the day at leisure.

From the first friendly welcome, to your journey of discovery through the African bush with an experienced game ranger at your side, to a starlit dinner around a dancing fire, to the individually decorated luxury bedrooms, Mjejane River Lodge is a truly unforgettable destination.

Mjejane Game Reserve is fully absorbed into the Kruger National Park. Therefore, all fences between the Mjejane Reserve and Kruger were removed and the animals move freely. Safari viewing and experience is therefore much better than being in a private reserve. As you are aware the Kruger National Park is the third biggest game reserve in the world and has the widest array of fauna and flora in the world. It is simply unbeatable as far as safari is concerned.

The lodge also has the unique setting overlooking the Crocodile River therefore all rooms have a view and direct access to the lush gardens. It is possible to view animals from the lodge itself. A fabulous Boma dinner (outdoor restaurant under the stars) is served every second or third day to allow guests to experience an authentic African style of dining and a local African dance group perform at a nominal cost to add to the flavour of the evening.

Day 10 Johannesburg - Soweto Tour - New Zealand

This morning you will be collected from your hotel and luggage and set out on a day tour of Johannesburg's Soweto area.

Soweto is a place of contrasts: pitted roads and littered sidewalks offset green parks; a mishmash of tin shanties; some their original grey or red brick, others beautifully renovated and some turned into luxurious mansions. The area is rich in history of the apartheid movement and also responsible for many political, sporting and social luminaries, including Nelson Mandela and Desmond Tutu - two Nobel peace prize laureates, who once lived in the now world famous Vilakazi Street in Orlando West.

First stop on this tour is the Apartheid Museum where you will have 2 hours at leisure to explore this famous and important museum. Afterwards enjoy a traditional Sowetan lunch then head off on a 2 hour guided Tuk Tuk tour. On this Tuk Tuk tour there will be 2 adults per Tuk Tuk. Tuk Tuks will leave in a convoy and stop at numerous landmarks where the each Tuk Tuk driver/guide will provide detailed insight about the significance and history of specific Soweto landmarks along with cultural insight to the area. Upon completion of the tour you will be met and transferred onwards to Johannesburg Airport for your return flight to New Zealand, departing this evening.
