14 DAY BUCKET LIST ADVENTURE

THE ITINERARY

Itinerary - 1: 14 Day Standard Package

Day 1 Australia - Casablanca, Morocco

Today depart from either Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane, *Adelaide or Perth for Casablanca, Morocco! Fly with Etihad Airways, Emirates, British Airways, Lufthansa or Swiss Airways to name a few (subject to availability).

Meals included: In-Flight

Day 2 Welcome to Casablanca

Upon arrival you will be met by a representative and transferred to the hotel.

Overnight: Hotel Maamoura or similar, Casablanca

Meals included: None

Day 3 Casablanca - Rabat (approx. 87km day)

After breakfast enjoy a half day guided tour of Casablanca. See the famous Hassan II Mosque, (entrance not included) the largest mosque in Morocco and the third largest mosque in the world. It stands on a promontory looking out to the Atlantic Ocean. Explore the beautiful Ain Diab Corniche, a long promenade along the Atlantic lined with restaurants, swimming pools, Place des Nations Unies and the Habous Quarter. Afterwards drive north along the beautiful coastal road to Rabat, Morocco's political capital built overlooking the sea. The city was established as the capital of modern Morocco during their independence. This afternoon enjoy a guided tour of the medina, seeing sights such as the Royal Palace (Mehouar), the Kasbah des Oudaias, originally a fortified town that is now infused with a distinctly Andalusian flavour, the Mausoleum of Mohammed V, and Hassan Tower (entrances not included).

Overnight: Hotel Le Musee or similar, Rabat

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 4 Rabat - Meknes - Fez (approx. 270km day)

This morning depart to the imperial city of Meknes, where you will enjoy a guided tour of the major highlights. Sights include the old granaries of the Heri Es-Souani and the Museum of Moulay Ismail (entrance not included). You will also see the Bab el Khemis Gate and walk through the city's spectacular centre to see Bab Mansour and Place el Hedim. Continue your journey this afternoon to Fez. One of the oldest of the imperial cities it has a rich fascinating history. It has played an important part in Moroccan trade, culture, religion and politics as well as being the seat of learning for science.

Overnight: Hotel Escale or similar, Fez

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 5 Fez Full Day City Tour

After breakfast you will enjoy a full day guided tour of Fez, the intellectual and religious heart of Morocco. Fez has many mosques and medersas (theological colleges) including the ninth century Karouine University, whose architecture is very similar to that seen in Moorish Spain. See wonderful mosaics and carved woodwork in Medersa Bou Ananiya (entrance included), a group of buildings from the fourteenth century, which also include an elegant minaret overlooking Talaa Kebira. You also visit the famous medina in Fez, which is one of the largest in the world. In its immense and confusing warren of souks, there are thousands of artisans in their tiny shops opening onto the narrow alleyways. The medina of Fez is a totally absorbing and unique experience. Finally, your local guide will take you to the Jewish District (mellah), the Royal Palace and a panoramic viewpoint over the medina (entrance not included).

Overnight: Hotel Escale or similar, Fez

Meals included: Breakfast

landscapes of the Middle Atlas Mountains, through a magnificent cedar forest with the possibility to see some wild monkeys on the way. This is the land of the fiercely independent Berbers, the Lords of the Atlas, whose traditions and ways still hold sway up here in their mountain strongholds far away from the cities below. The Berbers present us with a unique view of a lifestyle lost from the rest of North Africa, music, dance, even language and religion. After crossing the High Atlas continue via Ziz Valley which is dotted with palm trees, fortified villages and Berber farming communities. Continue through the arid desert plains to Merzouga at the foot of the Erg Chebbi dunes.

Overnight: Ksar Bicha Hotel or similar, Merzouga

Meals included: Breakfast;Dinner

Day 7 Erg Chebbi Dunes

This morning enjoy a jeep safari around the dunes and meet with some local nomads. In the afternoon you will find your 'ship of the desert' waiting for you. Clamber onto the back of your camel and gently plod into the sand dunes like a true desert nomad. From dune to dune discover breathtaking scenery. The sensation of being surrounded by endless desert is incredibly calming and the silence is overwhelming. You will arrive at your camp of Bedouin tents, nestled in between the sand dunes. Walk along the rim of the sand dunes as the sun begins to set. Later this evening savour a traditional meal followed by music and dancing by the campfire.

Overnight: Camp Biacha or similar, Erg Chebbi (Desert Experience)

Meals included: Breakfast;Dinner

Day 8 Merzouga – Todgha Gorge – Dades Valley – Boumalne Dades (approx. 250km day)

Early this morning climb back onto your camel and enjoy the magnificent sunrise on the golden dunes. After breakfast, continue your journey with a break at Rissani market. Then head towards Tinejdad where you will visit the Berber Museum of Khorbat. Opened in 2002, the Oasis Museum occupies a group of three restored houses inside the Ksar El Khorbat Oujdid, the Museum displays: antiquities and objects of traditional use, colour photographs, historic photographs, maps and sketches, scale models and reproductions.

After the visit, enjoy a cup of tea inside a Kasbah. Continue towards the marvellous valley of Todgha with its ochre and green colours it's one of the most beautiful valleys in southern Morocco. A lush green Tinghir oasis running along a deep valley inhabited by a Berber population in kasbahs and nicely designed villages. Walk along the palm groves and the gorge. In the afternoon, continue to the famous Dades Valley, known for its beautiful kasbahs and fortified villages. This evening you will stay in a kasbah in Boumalne Dades.

Overnight: Kasbah Tizzarouine or similar, Boumalne Dades

Meals included: Breakfast;Dinner

Day 9 Boumalne Dades – Ouarzazate – Ait Ben Haddou (approx. 150km day)

Today you will discover the beautiful road of a Thousand Kasbahs, where each of the oasis towns can boast their own distinctive character. First head to the marvellous Dades and Rose Valley with their diversified coloured landscape. Then reach Ouarzazate, the city of cinema and continue to the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Ait Ben Haddou, which has been used as a backdrop for many Hollywood blockbusters, it was one of the important fortress strongholds on the old Salt Road Caravan Route, between the Sahara and Marrakech.

Overnight: Hotel Kasbah or similar, Ait Ben Haddou

Meals included: Breakfast;Dinner

Day 10 Ait Ben Haddou – Marrakech (approx. 185km day)

After breakfast head north through parched desert sand where stone gives way to the hills and deep gorges of the High Atlas Mountains. Wind your way up and over the Tizi n' Tichka (2260m), the highest vehicular pass in Morocco and often snow covered during the winter months. Then head to Marrakech through spectacular scenery, colourful valleys, shepherds with their flocks and Berber villages high up on the hillsides. Upon arrival, you will be transferred to the hotel and then enjoy the rest of the day at leisure to do some sightseeing and perhaps discover the famous Jemaa el Fnaa square by night.

Overnight: Hotel Racine or similar, Marrakech
Meals included: Breakfast

Day 11 Marrakech Half Day City Tour

Today set off on a half day guided tour to explore a city that has for centuries been a meeting place for the mountain Berbers and the desert people of the south. Marrakech is divided into two distinct parts, the Gueliz (the modern French-built city) and the Medina (the Old City). Start by the Koutoubia Mosque, the largest mosque in Marrakech, (entrance not included) famed for its minaret, which has inspired other buildings such as the Hassan Tower of Rabat. Next on the tour is a visit to the fascinating Saadian Tombs, which dates back to the time of Sultan Ahmed al-Mansur who reigned from 1578 to 1603. These remarkable tombs are renowned for their beauty, in particular their steles and stuccowork. Also visit the Bahia Palace and museum. Built to be the most impressive palace of its time, it captures the essence of both Islamic and Moroccan styles. Finish the tour with some free time in Jemaa el Fnaa, the famous market square, a maze of bustling bazaars, palaces and mosques. It's worth seeing this renowned landmark in the evening, as Marrakech revolves around the open-air central square. With food stalls, snake charmers, water-sellers and acrobats, it's a place of entertainment for both locals and tourists.

This afternoon there is also the opportunity to join some optional tours including a horse drawn carriage ride and a cooking class (not included).

Overnight: Hotel Racine or similar, Marrakech
Meals included: Breakfast

Day 12 Marrakech – Casablanca (approx. 240km day)

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

TOUR GUIDE VS. TOUR LEADER

Tour Guide:

Often locals with intimate knowledge of an area, its culture, and history. Their role entails providing commentary, routing the tour, and seeing that people have a good time. They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction in which he or she is guiding the tour. The guide meets the group at the required place and leaves the group at the end of the tour, they do not travel with the group.

Tour Leader:

An experienced person tasked with ensuring the smooth operation of tours, as well as providing practical support to passengers throughout the whole trip. Their role primarily includes assisting with accommodation, transportation between locations, and communication with tour guides in each stop. A tour leader may provide general guidance around a city or village, and offer information on the place visited on the bus, however they are not required to have specific knowledge on art, architecture, or history. They are not allowed to provide a guided tour or commentary of a city/village/attraction once there and if caught doing so, can be fined.

Please note: Tour leaders/guides are not a standard inclusion in all travel offers. Tour leaders/guides will only be made available when particularly required to enhance the experience of the destination featured.

CLIMATE & AVERAGE TEMPERATURES

Morocco:

Morocco's climate is very diverse, varying with the season and region. The country is mostly dry with high temperatures in summer (June - August) and a cooler climate in the mountains. In spring and Autumn (September - November and March - May), the cities are warm to hot (maximum daytime temperatures around 25 - 30°C) with pleasantly cool nights. In the desert, the sun is strong and the nights can be cold. In the mountains, the air is cool and nights are cold. In winter January and February the temperature goes from 20°C in the daytime to 9°C at night.

Canary Islands

In Gran Canaria, a round-shaped island belonging to the Canaries, the climate is subtropical oceanic on the coast, that is, very mild and sunny most of the year, with mild and spring-like winters, and warm and sunny summers, and also with little rainfall, concentrated in the period from October to March. Along the coasts, and therefore also in the major cities, daytime temperatures are very mild in winter, with highs around 21°C in January and February, and warm in summer, with highs around 27/28°C from July to September.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

FLIGHTS

Seat Selection & Frequent Flyer Points:

At TripADeal we do not arrange seat selection. It is important to highlight that some Airlines do not allow pre-selected seats. We strongly suggest you contact the Airline directly with seating allocation requirements and or arrive at the airport earlier to arrange your seating. While we do not add frequent flyer member details to bookings, you can do this directly with the Airline once you have your flight information.

Passport Validity:

Customers are required to provide valid passport details either at the time of purchase, or no later than 45 days prior to departure date. Failure to do so may result in cancellation of the booking. In this instance customers will be responsible for any costs and fees incurred.

COACH TOUR

Meals:

15 meals are included in the tour, for all other meals; lunches and dinners the tour leader (when available) will offer assistance with reservations, suggestions and directions to local restaurants. It is your responsibility to notify TripADeal of any dietary requests/requirements. Please note; we will do our best to meet your requests/requirements, however cannot guarantee that we will always be able to.

Luggage:

You will be responsible for all your personal belongings whilst on the tour. With regards to luggage, you must carry your own luggage from the coach to the hotel room and back to the coach. The driver will assist with the uploading and off-loading of the luggage from the coach.

OTHER

Fitness Level Required / Mobility:

Our vehicles are not equipped with wheelchair access, so unfortunately our tours are currently not suitable for wheelchair users and those less mobile.

Please note: a standard level of fitness will be required. If you have any concerns please consult your healthcare provider prior to purchase/travel.

Gratuities / Tipping:

Gratuities (tips) are not included in the tour price for services of the tour leader (when available) and driver throughout the tour. The recommended tip for the tour leader and driver is $4 USD per person per day, which will be collected whilst on tour.

Sightseeing:

Please note: In the event entrance to a site is affected by changes in operating hours or public holiday closures, your itinerary will be adjusted to ensure you do not miss out on the experience.

Shopping:

Shopping overseas can be a daunting and confusing experience, especially when there is a language barrier. Please be very cautious when foreign currencies and prices are involved. If paying by credit card, please pay close attention to the amount you are being charged and keep all of your receipts.

Do not make any purchases you are not comfortable with or feel pressured into. If you are uncertain or need assistance with the language barrier, please seek assistance from your Tour Guide/Leader.

Please refer to our Terms and Conditions in regards to shopping for further information.

VISAS

A tourist visa for Morocco and Canary Islands, Spain is not required for a stay of up to 90 days, if travelling on an Australian Passport.

Please note: Passengers who are not Australian citizens must check with the respective consulate or visa agency to determine what their visa requirements are and what personal identification is required. It is also important to note, some areas of employment such as journalism, government authorities and charity organisations may have additional restrictions in applying for Visas. This may in turn affect the type of application required.
