change in the past decade. Beginning the 21st century as an economically backward place, the city has very successfully reinvented itself as a cruise-ship destination, with the construction of two impressive new terminals. More than that, Fort-de-France has rejuvenated its central park, given a coat of paint to many of its buildings and enhanced itself with several pieces of modern architecture. All this has served to breathe fresh life into the largest city in the French West Indies, and cruisers and travellers alike now flock to the place.

Overnight: MSC 'Meraviglia' Ship
Meals included: Breakfast;Lunch;Dinner

Day 17 Bridgetown, Barbados – 7:00am to 7:00pm

Bridgetown, the capital of Barbados, is a port city on the island's southwest coast. It's known for its British colonial architecture, 17th-century Garrison and horse racing track. The National Heroes Square, which fringes the Constitution River, Nidhe Israel Synagogue and the museum explore the island's Jewish history. Carlisle Bay is home to six shipwreck dive sites, Browne's Beach and a yacht club.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

LAS VEGAS RESORT FEE

In recent years, most Las Vegas hotels have implemented "resort fees." These daily supplementary charges are not included in the initial booking cost (when booked through the hotel website or via a third party). The fees are due to the hotel at the end of the stay. In other words, you pay resort fees upon check out. In return, these supplementary fees allow you access to some of the services within the facility and nearby such as in room wifi, unlimited local and toll free calls, fitness centre access, a discount shopping coupon books etc. Please note fees differ between hotels and are subject to change.

TOUR GUIDE VS. TOUR LEADER

Tour Guide:

Often locals with intimate knowledge of an area, its culture, and history. Their role entails providing commentary, routing the tour, and seeing that people have a good time. They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction in which he or she is guiding the tour. The guide meets the group at the required place and leaves the group at the end of the tour, they do not travel with the group.

Tour Leader:

An experienced person tasked with ensuring the smooth operation of tours, as well as providing practical support to passengers throughout the whole trip. Their role primarily includes assisting with accommodation, transportation between locations, and communication with tour guides in each stop. A tour leader may provide general guidance around a city or village, and offer information on the place visited on the bus, however they are not required to have specific knowledge on art, architecture, or history. They are not allowed to provide a guided tour or commentary of a city/village/attraction once there and if caught doing so, can be fined.

Please note: Tour leaders/guides are not a standard inclusion in all travel offers. Tour leaders/guides will only be made available when particularly required to enhance the experience of the destination featured.
