CLIMATE & AVERAGE TEMPERATURE

Koh Tao/Koh Samui:

The weather here is really pleasant most of the time. The climate in Koh Samui & Koh Tao comes in three distinct seasons: dry, hot and rainy. Thailand lies between the Tropic of Cancer and the Equator (slightly closer to the latter). This makes its climate warm and humid all year round. The humidity level stands between 70 and 85 per cent, and the temperatures averages at around 28°C. Koh Samui & Koh Tao offers all that vacationers from cooler temperate countries could dream of regarding weather conditions. They are generally good year round, and the one thing you will rarely feel here is cold. You can enjoy the optimum weather conditions between December and August.
