Day 3 Bucharest - Sinai - Bran - Brasov (approx. 200km day)
Today we transfer to Sinai by bus. Sinai is situated in the historical region of Muntenia. The town was named after Sinaia Monastery, around which it was built; the monastery in turn is named after the Biblical Mount Sinai. The town itself is a melange of crayon-coloured wooden houses contrasted with the ‘wedding-cake’ style of its grander 19th-century buildings. Once home to Romania’s first king, Carol I, who created a summer retreat here, Peleş Castle is a dream of hidden passages, fairy-tale turrets, vertiginous galleries and classical statues; it’s so beguilingly imaginative, it could raise a swoon from the most hardened cynic. Here you will see the Peles and Pelisor Castles and see the Sinaia Monastery (entrance tickets not included). Time at disposal for lunch (at own expense) and transfer to Bran’s a village in the southern Transylvania, in the department of Brasov. It is famous for the Bran Castle and an important agrotouristic place of Romania. Here you will visit the famous Bran Castle also known as Dracula's Castle (entrance tickets not included). The castle inspired by Bram Stoker, much as souvenir-sellers attempt to link Bran to the iconic Gothic novel Dracula. These seem minor quibbles when you gaze up at the turreted fortress, guarded from the east by the Bucegi Mountains and from the west by Piatra Craiului massif. Meanwhile, the castle’s museum pays greater homage to Romanian royals than immortal counts. Ignoring this, a gauntlet of souvenir sellers hawk fang-adorned mugs and Vlad-the-Impaler compact mirrors If time allows it, you can also visit the Village Museum. Continue onwards to Brasov and check in at hotel.
Kronwell Hotel, Brasov

Day 4 Brasov Free Day
Enjoy Brașov today, a city in the Transylvania region of Romania, ringed by the Carpathian Mountains. It’s known for its medieval Saxon walls and bastions, the towering Gothic-style Black Church and lively cafes. Piata Sfatului (Council Square) in the cobbled old town is surrounded by colourful baroque buildings and is home to the Casa Sfatului, a former town hall turned local history museum. Today you will have the day at leisure to discover the most important attractions of the city: The Rope Street, The Black Church, The First Romanian School, the old town with the old walls and towers. Don’t miss the opportunity to listen to a private organ concert inside The Black Church. In the evening transfer to Poiana Brasov where you will have dinner in a local restaurant, Coliba Haiducilor). A must on any trip to Poiana, Coliba - opened in 1967 - serves traditional Romanian food in a gorgeous building close to the ski slopes. Sit at one of the long wooden tables. The food is fantastic - from the ciorbas and soups to the huge portions of meat, all of which come served on wooden boards.
