Japan is evolving at a rapid pace. Yet despite its technological advancement, spirituality and tradition still play an integral role in daily life. A land of delicate beauty, both natural and man-made, every inch of this graceful nation is worth exploring. From the glittering metropolis of Tokyo to the serene bamboo forest of Sagano, this trip will be the ultimate taste of Japan.

The Offer

The cultural wonders of Japan are yours to discover on this incredible 14 day bullet train tour of Tokyo, Kyoto, Nagano, Hiroshima and more.

Begin in the neon metropolis of Tokyo; see sumos practicing at a traditional sumo stable, take a cruise on the meandering Sumida River, and visit Senso-ji, Tokyo's oldest Buddhist temple. Witness the famed snow monkeys bathing in the waters of Jigokudani hot springs, marvel at the historic Matsumoto Castle, and visit a sake brewery, where you can sample the local tippie. Explore the UNESCO listed folk village Shirakawa-go, known for its A-frame thatched houses, plus visit Nagamachi samurai village in Kanazawa. In Kyoto, a visit to Kinkaku-ji golden pavilion and Sagano bamboo forest will be genuine highlights.

With return international flights, 11 nights accommodation, return airport transfers and English-speaking guides all included, this package has all the ingredients of a trip of a lifetime.

Trip
aDeal

Day 1: Australia via Guangzhou - Tokyo, Japan (In-Flight meals)
Today depart for your overnight flight from Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane or *Perth for Tokyo, Japan! Fly with China Southern or China Eastern Airlines (subject to availability).

Day 2: Welcome to Japan (No Meals)

On arrival into Tokyo you will be met at the airport and transferred to the hotel. Once checked in you will be introduced to your Tour Manager for the next 10 days. In the evening there is an optional Food Tour of Tokyo (not included).

Overnight: Hotel Villa Fontaine, Tokyo

Day 3: Tokyo Sightseeing Tour - Asakusa - Harajuku (B)

After an early breakfast, your guide and Tour Manager will take you on a tour using the efficient inner-city public transit system. First, visit the Sumo Stable to watch the morning practice of this famous sport. Afterwards, stroll through the peaceful Hamamiyaku Garden, the former private garden of an Edo Period Lord. Here you will stop for a Japanese green tea, followed by a short cruise along the Sumida river to see the Tokyo from different angle.

Next, head over to Asakusa - home of the grand temple of Senso-ji. This bright red temple is central to an area famous for kimono, geisha, performing arts and old-fashioned souvenirs for more than 300 years. In the afternoon, visit the magnificent Meiji Shrine, a Shinto shrine dedicated to the Meiji Emperor, and the most popular place in the city for weddings and end-of-year "Hatsu-mode." You will be shown the traditions associated with visiting such a shrine.

Continue the journey to Harajuku and Omote-Sando, also known as Tokyo's Champs-Elysee. This broad, tree lined avenue features a multitude of fashion flagship stores designed by internationally renowned architects within a short distance.

Overnight: Hotel Villa Fontaine, Tokyo

Day 4: Tokyo to Nagano (Bullet train experience) - Snow Monkey Park (B)

This morning embark on the first bullet train experience to Nagano. Once in Nagano, take a public bus to the Jigokudani Snow Monkey Park. There is a gentle 30-minute walk to get in to the park (moderate fitness required). The Jigokudani Monkey Park offers visitors the unique experience of seeing wild monkeys bathing in a natural hot spring. The park is inhabited by Japanese Macaques, also known as Snow Monkeys. On the way back, your Tour Manager will organise a walk through a small Onsen (hot spring) town. You can pay directly if you wish to take part in one of the onsen experience. Tonight stay in a traditional Japanese Ryokan.

Overnight: Onyado Hishiya Torazo, Nagano

Day 5: Zenkoji temple - Nagano to Matsumoto (Bullet train experience) (B)

Early start after breakfast, to visit Zenkoji temple. Afterwards, jump aboard another bullet train to Matsumoto. In the afternoon, visit the imposing Matsumoto castle at your own leisure (entrance not included 600 Yen). If the time permits also visit a famous wasabi farm and learn how this spicy paste is grown in the field.

Overnight: Tokyu REI Hotel, Matsumoto

Day 6: Matsumoto to Takayama (Bullet train experience) - Takayama Walking Tour (B)

Today journey by bullet train to Takayama. In the afternoon, head out on a walking tour of the old town and visit a sake brewery. The freshest sake is the best - find out for yourself how it's made, and what it tastes like. Tonight stay at a traditional Ryokan.

Overnight: Hida Gasshoen, Takayama

Day 7: Takayama - Miyagawa farmer's market - Shirakawa-go (B)

In the morning, visit the Miyagawa farmer's market on foot. Visit the floats museum, which displays an array of unique and colourful floats used in the festivals of the area. In the afternoon visit the local folk village Shirakawa-go; a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Overnight: Hida Gasshoen, Takayama

Day 8: Takayama to Kanazawa (Bullet train experience) - Kanazawa Sightseeing Tour (B)

Today, transfer to the train station for another bullet train experience to Kanazawa. Kanazawa was inhabited by samurai, which was the centre of culture in the east for much of the 17th century. Take a sightseeing bus tour of the whole area including Nagamachi Samurai District, visit the Kenroku Garden, a spacious and well-decorated garden of waterfalls and curiosities, and visit the Kanazawa Castle and see where the elite governed the area. Kanazawa is also famous for gold leaf products - find their signature in everything from accessories to clothing, housewares to food.

Overnight: Garden Hotel, Kanazawa

Day 9: Kanazawa to Hiroshima (Bullet train experience) (B)

After breakfast board another bullet train to Hiroshima. Hiroshima is a city not only made world-famous in the aftermath of the Second World but also the stunning vibrancy and culture, which has re-grown itself from the ashes. Along with the tranquil Peace Park and Museum in the centre of the city, which reminds us of humanity's recent past, you'll find shopping centres, teahouses, museums and sports fields branching out all around.

Overnight: Chisun Hotel, Hiroshima

Day 10: Hiroshima Free Day (B)

Spend the whole day at leisure in Hiroshima. Suggestions would be to visit the Mazda Car Factory, Miyajima Island; one of the most scenic spots in Japan. Miyajima is also populated by the friendliest of deer - sweet creatures that will eat from your hand. Visit the temples and hike (or take a cable car) to the top of Misen Mountain for a taste of monk life.

Overnight: Chisun Hotel, Hiroshima

Day 11: Hiroshima to Kyoto (Bullet train experience) (B)

Jump back on the bullet train today over to Kyoto and check into hotel. Enjoy a leisurely walk through Gion, where you may get a glimpse of a traditional Geisha, walking through the narrow alleys.

Overnight: Ryokan Heianbo, Kyoto

Day 12: Kyoto highlights tour (B)

Utilizing the efficient Kyoto's subway or bus and a knowledgeable private guide, start with the grand Nijo Castle, a sprawling, breath-taking example of comfortable luxury in Japanese nature. Then visit Ryōan-ji, famous for its UNESCO-protected World Heritage zen gardens and temple.

Afterward, visit Kinkakuji (golden temple) the location of many films. This pavilion, which is completely coated in gold, was originally built as a summer house for a shogun. Transfer to Sagano, and start walking through the lush bamboo grove, admiring the amazing views of the mountains and valleys. It is around 3km gentle walk. Head

TOKYO:

Tokyo Foodie Tour: JPY 8500 (Approx. $100 AUD):

Explore the back street of Tokyo like a locals do in the evening. Dining and drinking is part of the every day life of many Tokyoties. There are many hidden local restaurants, known as Izakayas. Menus are mostly in Japanese and staffs speaks only Japanese. You will visit couple of these hidden Izakayas during this foodie exploration and not only learn about the local delicacy, enjoy it to your appetite.

Menu: Yakitori, tofu, sashimi, locally braised chicken, fresh vegetables cooked in Japanese style and pickles to spice it up. 2 alcoholic drinks (beer or sake or sochu)/ non alcoholic drinks is included.

HIROSHIMA:

Geisha Dinner: JPY 19,000 (Approx. $220 AUD)

Enjoy the evening watching the beauty of apprentice Geisha, famously known as Maiko at the heart of Kyoto- Gion. Apprentice Geisha performs along the tunes of traditional Japanese music. You will have the opportunity to interact during the drinking game during the show. Furthermore, indulge in a multi-course of Japanese kaiseki (set) cuisine. This session is for 2 hours, a great way to end the day. Such a great experience to gain the fascinating insight into ancient Japanese customs as you converse with apprentice Geisha, you will be tempted to take pictures for a memory.

Price: JPY19,000, per person

Included: Performance, Local set Dinner (Kaiseki meal), non alcoholic beverages

KYOTO:

Samurai Kembu Class: JPY 9,000 (Approx. $105 AUD)

In this lesson you will wear the traditional custom and can learn about, and practice, some aspects of the etiquette of samurai classes as well as practice basic kembu, including how to use the Japanese sword and variety of moves with the sword. You can also experience how to use the folding fan if you wish. The lesson last for approximately 2 hours.

Please Note:

- prices are based on per person, are subject to availability, time permitting and weather conditions, and are payable direct to the tour operator in the currency specified

- Some tours require minimum numbers to operate

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Baggage Handling Service

Baggage handling: During the train journeys, it is not advisable to carry a BIG suitcase as there is nowhere to store the luggage in train and the stoppage time of train is short- 2 min (average in each station), so it is very inconvenient to check in and out with big luggage.

We advise customers to forward their luggage to the next destination via the luggage transfer system and carry a light backpack.

Baggage handling services are available in each hotel reception. The tour manager will assist in filling out details. It take 24 hours for the luggage to be transferred to next
