CONCORDIA
LUTHERAN COLLEGE

Camps & Outdoor Education

When asked, most students will mention their Outdoor Education experience as a special highlight of their life at Concordia Lutheran College. Outdoor education as a tool for student development is embedded across the Junior, Middle and Senior learning journey at Concordia.

Our Outdoor Education Program has been designed to foster personal, spiritual and social development in our students. Students emerge from their outdoor education experiences with new strengths, resilience, and enhances sense of purpose, unshakable friendships, an understanding of the value of teamwork and a mature sense of their relationship with God.

Benefits of Outdoor Education

Outdoor education gives students the opportunity to learn outside the classroom and to cope with the pressures of life such as dealing with responsibilities, failure and success.

Other benefits include learning to appreciate their families, gaining a better understanding of self, making new friends, heightening acceptance of others, building confidence and developing new skills.
