

DOMINIC COLLEGE HALL OF ACHIEVEMENT

CREATIVE ARTS

Mr Michael Lampard: Dominic College 1999-2001

Michael studied with Suzanne Ortuso from the age of 7 in Hobart and competed and performed locally and across Australia from a young age. Michael came to Dominic College in 1999 in Year 8 and completed his high school education at Dominic in 2001. He had made his operatic debut at age 16.

Michael completed a Bachelor of Music with Honours and a Masters degree in Music at the University of Tasmania. He gained an Associate Diploma from Trinity College, London, and a Licentiate from the Australian Music Examination's Board.

Michael has become a nationally and internationally recognized Opera singer, undertaking more than 50 operatic roles. His repertoire encompasses roles from the medieval period to many modern world and Australian premieres.

Michael has sung extensively with Australia's leading performing arts companies including Opera Australia, the Victorian Opera, the Melbourne Opera Company, Lyric Opera of Melbourne, the Victorian Youth Symphony Orchestra as well as presenting recitals across the country and the world.

He is an experienced conductor and composer, having original works performed in Australia, Japan, Italy and the United States. Michael has a passion for performance and for developing music appreciation and skills with students and in the community.

