Policy Statement and a Statement about Commitment

Seventh-day Adventist Schools (South Queensland) Limited is committed to the safety and wellbeing of students enrolled at its schools. In accordance with sections 171 and 172 of the Working with Children (Risk Management and Screening) Act 2000 (Qld), Seventh-day Adventist Schools (South Queensland) Limited is dedicated to eliminating and minimising risks to child safety through this Strategy which includes and refers to various other policies and procedures to effectively ensure the safety and wellbeing of children in the care of its schools.

This Child Risk Management Strategy is evidence of Seventh-day Adventist Schools (South Queensland) Limited's commitment to the safety and wellbeing of children and the protection of children from harm in fulfilment of the requirements of section 3(1)(a) of the Working with Children (Risk Management and Screening) Regulation 2011 (Qld).

Implementation

In practice, Seventh-day Adventist Schools (South Queensland) Limited's commitment to acting in accordance to the Working with Children (Risk Management and Screening) Act ("the Act") to ensure the safety and wellbeing of students means that it will implement the measures outlined below in points 1 - 8.

1. Code of Conduct

SDAS(SQ)Ltd's Staff Code of Conduct (SQS188.001.ADM) is evidence of fulfilment of the requirements of section 3(1)(b) of the Regulation.

2. Recruitment, Selection, Training and Management Procedures

Seventh-day Adventist Schools (South Queensland) Limited is committed to recruiting, selecting, training and managing employees in such a way that limits risks to children. In particular, Seventh-day Adventist Schools (South Queensland) Limited will:

- Ensure that its recruitment and selection procedures act to reduce the risk of harm to children from employees via:
 - Accurate position descriptions, including whether the successful applicant must be a teacher registered with the Queensland College of Teachers (who has been subject to relevant police and other safety checks), whether a Blue Card is necessary for the successful applicant, the responsibilities and supervision associated with the position, the nature and environment of the service provided to children, and the experience and qualifications required by the successful applicant;
 - Advertising the position with a clear statement about the school's commitment to safe and supportive work practices and identifying that candidates will be subject to a teacher registration check or Blue Card screening, a police check, referee checks, identification verification and the requirement to disclose any information relevant to the candidates' eligibility to engage in activities including young people;
 - A selection process that includes assessing the application via an interview process and referee and other checks (as identified above) based on the accurate position description;
 - A probationary period of employment, which allows the school to further assess the suitability of the new employee and to act as a check on the selection process.

- Ensure that its training and management procedures act to reduce the risk of harm to children from employees via:
 - Management processes that are consistent, fair and supportive;
 - Performance management processes to help employees to improve their performance in a positive manner;
 - Supportive processes for staff when they are experiencing challenges, such as mentoring, mediation, conflict resolution, coaching, additional training, and external support and counselling services;
 - An induction program which thoroughly addresses the school’s policies and procedures, particularly its expectations regarding child risk management and to assist employees to understand their role in providing a safe and supportive environment for children;
 - Training new and existing staff on an ongoing basis to enhance skills and knowledge and to reduce exposure to risks, as follows:
 - The school’s policies and procedures;
 - Identifying, assessing and minimising risks to children;
 - Handling a disclosure or suspicion of harm to a child.
 - Keeping a record of the training provided to employees;
 - Exit interviews to assist the school to identify broader issues of concern that may impact on the safety and wellbeing of children at the school.

This commitment is evidence of Seventh-day Adventist Schools (South Queensland) Limited’s fulfilment of the requirements of section 3(1)(c) of the Regulation.

3. Handling Disclosures or Suspicions of Harm

Any of the types of concerns or reports below should be reported and managed under SDAS(SQ)Ltd’s Child Protection Policy (SQS170.001.ADM) and the Child Protection Procedures (SQS105.005.ADM), as follows:

- All staff with concerns about sexual abuse or likely sexual abuse;
- Teachers with concerns of sexual or physical abuse;
- All staff who have received a report of inappropriate behaviour by another staff member.

In accordance with the Child Protection Act 1999, if a staff member, teaching or non-teaching, is aware or reasonably suspects harm has been caused to a student under 18 years and the harm has not been reported under SDAS(SQ)Ltd’s Child Protection Policy (SQS170.001.ADM) and the Child Protection Procedures (SQS105.005.ADM), the staff member must report the harm to the school’s Principal. The types of harm reported may include emotional or psychological abuse or neglect or sexual exploitation.

If the Principal is aware or reasonably suspects the harm has been caused and that the student is in need of protection, the Principal must report the harm or suspected harm to the Chief Executive of the Department of Communities, Child Safety and Disability Services (or other department administering the Child Protection Act 1999). In assessing whether a student is in need of protection, the Principal will consider the “Significant Harm Test” as detailed in SDAS(SQ)Ltd Child Protection Procedures (SQS105.005.ADM), as well as utilise the Department of Communities, Child Safety and Disability Services’ Child Protection Guide resource.

To report any type of harm, all staff members should use the Report of Suspected Harm or Sexual Abuse Form in Appendix 2 of this Strategy.

Furthermore, and in accordance with section 76 of the Education (Queensland College of Teachers) Act 2005, the Chief Executive Officer of Seventh-day Adventist Schools (South Queensland) Limited will report to the Queensland

College of Teachers any investigations into allegations of harm caused, or likely to be caused, to a child because of the conduct of a relevant teacher at the school.

This commitment is evidence of Seventh-day Adventist Schools (South Queensland) Limited's fulfilment of the requirements of section 3(1)(d) of the Regulation.

4. Managing Breaches of this Child Risk Management Strategy

Seventh-day Adventist Schools (South Queensland) Limited is committed to appropriately managing breaches of this Child Risk Management Strategy in accordance with its other relevant policies as appropriate in the circumstances, such as its Child Protection Policy (SQS170.001.ADM), Staff Code of Conduct (SQS188.001.ADM), Guidelines for Handling Complaints and Appeals (SQS199.001.ADM) and Enterprise Bargaining Agreement or equivalent, and this is evidence of fulfilment of the requirements of section 3(1)(e) of the Regulation.

5. Implementing and Reviewing the Child Risk Management Strategy

This Strategy in its entirety and its related policies and procedures are evidence of fulfilment of the requirements of section 3(1)(f)(i) of the Regulations relating to implementation.

The introduction to this Child Risk Management Strategy and the "Compliance and Monitoring" section below state Seventh-day Adventist Schools (South Queensland) Limited's commitment to reviewing the Strategy annually and are evidence of fulfilment of the requirements of section 3(1)(f)(i) of the Regulation relating to review.

6. Blue Card Policies and Procedures

Seventh-day Adventist Schools (South Queensland) Limited is committed to acting in accordance with chapter 8 of the Act relating to the screening of employees in such a way that limits risks to children. In particular, Seventh-day Adventist Schools (South Queensland) Limited will:

- Require relevant prospective or current employees, volunteers, trainee students and school board members to apply for a Blue Card or Exemption Notice, and check the validity and appropriateness of any currently held notices as appropriate, in accordance with Seventh-day Adventist Schools (South Queensland) Limited's position descriptions and the Act;
- Complete an Authorisation to confirm a valid card application when necessary;
- Submit a Change in police notification form when notified by employee that such a change has occurred;
- Not allow a person to continue to work with children if their Blue Card or Exemption Notice is cancelled or suspended or a negative notice is received after a change of police information;
- Submit a No longer with organisation form when appropriate;
- Appoint a school contact person who will be responsible for managing the screening process and all related documentation and records;
- Keep written records of all the above actions, decisions and outcomes, including the dates of expiry of Blue Cards and Exemption Notices;
- Ensure that all information in relation to Blue Cards and Exemption Notices is kept confidential;
- Act to remind employees to keep their Blue Card or Exemption Notice up to date.

This commitment is evidence of Seventh-day Adventist Schools (South Queensland) Limited's fulfilment of the requirements of section 3(1)(f)(ii) of the Regulation.
