

POLICY ON PRIVACY

Your Privacy is important

This Privacy Policy sets out how All Hallows' School ("the School") manages Personal Information provided to or collected by it.

The School is bound by the Australian Privacy Principles contained in the Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988, as amended ("the Act"). The School may, from time to time, review and update this Privacy Policy to take account of new laws and technology, changes to the School's operations and practices and to make sure it remains appropriate to the changing school environment.

What kinds of Personal Information does the School collect and how does the School collect it?

The type of information the School collects and holds includes (but is not limited to) Personal Information, including Health Information and other Sensitive Information, about:

- Students and Parents and/or guardians ('Parents') before, during and after the course of a Student's enrolment at the School, including:
 - name, contact details (including next of kin), date of birth, previous school and religion;
 - medical information (e.g. details of disability and/or allergies, absence notes, medical reports and names of doctors);
 - conduct and complaint records, or other behaviour notes, and school reports;
 - information about referrals to government welfare agencies;
 - counselling reports;
 - health fund details and Medicare number;
 - any court orders;
 - volunteering information; and
 - photos and videos at School events;
- job applicants, staff members, volunteers and contractors, including:
 - name, contact details (including next of kin), date of birth, and religion;
 - information on job application;
 - professional development history;
 - salary and payment information, including superannuation details;
 - medical information (e.g. details of disability and/or allergies, and medical certificates);
 - complaint records and investigation reports;
 - leave details;
 - photos and videos at School events;
 - workplace surveillance information;

- work emails and private emails (when using work email address) and Internet browsing history; and
- other people who come into contact with the School, including name and contact details and any other information necessary for the particular contact with the School.

Personal Information you provide: The School will generally collect Personal Information held about an individual by way of forms filled out by Parents or Students, face-to-face meetings and interviews, emails and telephone calls. On occasions, people other than Parents and Students provide Personal Information.

Personal Information provided by other people: In some circumstances the School may be provided with Personal Information about an individual from a third party, for example a report provided by a medical professional or a reference from another school.

Exception in relation to Employee Records: Under the Privacy Act, the Australian Privacy Principles (APP's) do not apply to an Employee Record. As a result, this Privacy Policy does not apply to the School's treatment of an Employee Record, where the treatment is directly related to a current or former employment relationship between the School and Employee

How will the School use the Personal Information you provide?

The School will use Personal Information it collects from you for the primary purpose of collection, and for such other secondary purposes that are related to the primary purpose of collection and reasonably expected by you, or to which you have consented.

Students and Parents: In relation to Personal Information of Students and Parents, the School's primary purpose of collection is to enable the School to provide schooling to Students enrolled at the school, exercise its duty of care, and perform necessary associated administrative activities, which will enable Students to take part in all the activities of the School. This includes satisfying the needs of Parents, the needs of the Student and the needs of the School throughout the whole period the Student is enrolled at the School.

The purposes for which the School uses Personal Information of Students and Parents include:

- to keep Parents informed about matters related to their child's schooling, through correspondence, newsletters and magazines;
- day-to-day administration of the School;
- looking after Students' educational, social and medical wellbeing;
- seeking donations and marketing for the School; and
- to satisfy the School's legal obligations and allow the School to discharge its duty of care.

In some cases where the School requests Personal Information about a Student or Parent, if the information requested is not provided, the School may not be able to enrol or continue the enrolment of the Student or permit the Student to take part in a particular activity.

Job applicants and contractors: In relation to Personal Information of job applicants and contractors, the School's primary purpose of collection is to assess and (if successful) to engage the applicant or contractor, as the case may be.

The purposes for which the School uses Personal Information of job applicants and contractors include:

- administering the individual's employment or contract, as the case may be;
- for insurance purposes;

- seeking donations and marketing for the School; and
- satisfying the School's legal obligations, for example, in relation to child protection legislation.

Volunteers: The School also obtains Personal Information about volunteers who assist the School in its functions or conduct associated activities, such as those involving the School's Foundation, the Past Pupils' Association and the Parents and Friends Association, to enable the School and the volunteers to work together.

Marketing and fundraising: The School treats marketing and seeking donations for the future growth and development of the School as an important part of ensuring that the School continues to provide a quality-learning environment in which both Students and staff thrive.

Personal Information held by the School may be disclosed to organisations that assist in the School's fundraising, for example, the School's Foundation or Parent support bodies.

Parents, staff, contractors and other members of the wider School community may, from time to time, receive fundraising information. School publications, like newsletters and magazines, which include Personal Information, may be used for marketing purposes.

In such instances where the School uses or discloses Personal Information for direct marketing purposes, the relevant individual may "Opt Out" by requesting:

- (a) not to receive direct marketing communications;
- (b) that their Personal Information not be used by or disclosed to other entities for the purpose of facilitating direct marketing; and
- (c) to be provided with the source of the information received (unless it is impracticable or unreasonable for the School to do so).

Who might the School disclose Personal Information to and store your information with?

The School may disclose Personal Information, including Sensitive Information, held about an individual for educational, administrative and support purposes. This may include to:

- other schools and teachers at those schools;
- government departments;
- medical practitioners;
- people providing educational, support and Health Services to the School, including specialist visiting teachers, [sports] coaches, volunteers, counsellors and providers of learning and assessment tools;
- assessment and educational authorities, including the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority;
- people providing administrative and financial services to the School;
- recipients of School publications, such as newsletters and magazines;
- Students' Parents or guardians;
- anyone you authorise the School to disclose information to; and
- anyone to whom we are required or authorised to disclose the information to by law, including child protection laws.

Sending and storing information overseas: The School may disclose Personal Information about an individual to overseas recipients, for instance, to facilitate a school exchange.

However, the School will not send Personal Information about an individual outside Australia without:

- obtaining the consent of the individual (in some cases this consent will be implied); or
- otherwise complying with the Australian Privacy Principles or other applicable privacy legislation.

The School may use online or 'cloud' service providers to store Personal Information and to provide services to the School that involve the use of Personal Information, such as services relating to email, instant messaging and education and assessment applications.

Some limited Personal Information may be provided to these service providers to enable them to authenticate users that access their services. This Personal Information may be stored in the 'cloud', which means that it may reside on a cloud service provider's servers that may be situated outside Australia, if applicable.

The School currently uses Office 365 for online and "cloud" services and as such, some Personal Information may be stored in Microsoft's data centres within Australia.

How does the School treat Sensitive Information?

In referring to 'Sensitive Information', the School means: information relating to a person's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religion, trade union or other professional or trade association membership, philosophical beliefs, sexual orientation or practices or criminal record, that is also Personal Information; health information and biometric information about an individual.

Sensitive Information will be used and disclosed only for the purpose for which it was provided or a directly related secondary purpose, unless you agree otherwise, or the use or disclosure of the Sensitive Information is allowed by law.

Management and security of Personal Information

The School's staff are required to respect the confidentiality of Students' and Parents' Personal Information and the privacy of individuals.

The School has in place steps to protect the Personal Information the School holds from misuse, interference and loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure by use of various methods including locked storage of paper records and password access rights to computerised records.

Access and correction of Personal Information

Under the Commonwealth Privacy Act, an individual has the right to seek and obtain access to any Personal Information that the School holds about them and to advise the School of any perceived inaccuracy. Students will generally be able to access and update their Personal Information through their Parent/s, but Students over 15 years may seek access and correction themselves.

There are some exceptions to these rights set out in the applicable legislation.

To make a request to access or to update any Personal Information the School holds about you or your child, please contact the School via our website, telephone or email. The School will require you to verify your identity and specify what information you require. The School may charge a fee to cover the cost of verifying your application and locating, retrieving, reviewing and copying any material requested. If the information sought is extensive, the School will advise the likely cost in advance. If we cannot provide you with access to that information, we will provide you with written notice explaining the reasons for refusal.

Consent and rights of access to the Personal Information of Students

The School respects every Parent's right to make decisions concerning their child's education.

Generally, the School will refer any requests for consent and notices in relation to the Personal Information of a Student to the Student's Parents. The School will generally treat consent given by Parents as consent given on behalf of the Student, and notice to Parents will act as notice given to the Student.

On a case-by-case basis, the Principal may consider a request for access to a Student's Personal Information, or allow a Student to give or withhold consent to the use of their Personal Information, independently of their Parents. This may apply in limited situations where:

- it is both reasonable and practicable to do so; and
- the Student is aged over 15 years; and
- the Principal has formed the view that the Student has sufficient maturity to understand what is being proposed.

There may also be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where release of the information would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, or where the release may result in a breach of the School's duty of care to the Student.

Enquiries and complaints

If you would like further information about the way the School manages the Personal Information it holds, or wish to complain that you believe that the School has breached the Australian Privacy Principles, please address your enquiry or complaint in writing to the Principal:
