Term 4 Commences Years 4-12

Dear Marist Family,

The end of Term 3 sees a number of key events take place at the College.

For our Year 12 boys two highlight events are the Year 12 Formal which takes place this Friday night followed by the Retreats next week. Over the years previous senior groups have viewed these events among the most positive experiences of their Marist schooling. I'm sure this year's Formal and the Retreats will be significant also for our current seniors. I wish them each a happy and positive experience in these coming days. I want to especially acknowledge and thank the staff who accompany the boys on their retreats and thank also Mr Hawes and the Mission Team for their work in organising the retreat program.

All of the winter sports have come to an end or are about to. This winter has been a particularly successful one across the codes. As well as winning championships and finals, the manner in which our boys and teams have played has been excellent. In recent weeks, we have continued to emphasise with the boys the importance of playing and supporting in the correct way, our way, which is to be respectful and positive in line with our College values and standards. I was very proud of the boys at all the games I watched in recent weeks and I thank them for responding so well to our expectations.

The sporting codes celebrate their respective seasons achievements at presentation evenings at this time and early next term. These gatherings have much to celebrate this year and highlights include:

- An undefeated season for our First XI Football team, seeing Marist win the premiership for the third time in four years.
- The First XVIII AFL team coming from fourth place to win the Rising Stars Competition, the second time in three seasons.
- The First XV Rugby team completing an undefeated season, winning the Grand Final for the first time since 2006. As well, the team won the ASC competition and defeated St Joseph's Hunters Hill at the start of the season.
- It is the first time for many years we have won all three football premierships in the same season. Pleasingly it brings to four successful victories for the year with the First XI cricket team winning their competition earlier in the year.
- Our First XI Hockey team plays its grand final on Sunday. I'm happy for the team and its coaches to see the boys playing for the championship.

We have enjoyed a truly remarkable year in sport and most pleasing is the positive impact it contributes to the spirit in the College. I often emphasise that Marist is not a sports school, rather it is a school that plays sport. Sport is not an end in itself, it is a means to an end. That 'end' is the quality of the tone in the College, that spirit which comes from boys, staff, families and Old Boys contributing to building our Marist culture – to ensure we truly are an "everything school".

Sincere thanks to everyone for your efforts this year in sport. The College is indeed richer for those efforts.

During the coming term break we have three groups touring overseas. Eight boys accompanied by Mr Hawes and Ms Weijers will be on Immersion in Sri Lanka. Mr Bhatnagar and Mrs Billingham are taking a group to the USA for the NASA Science trip. For the first time, a combined languages/ hospitality tour group will travel to Italy. The group will be accompanied by Mr David Moore, Ms Bal, Mr O’Kane, Mr Folan and Mrs Serbatoio. Best wishes to the three groups and safe travels.

Following a lengthy process the College Captains for 2018 have now been decided. Congratulations to:

Max Beaumont –
College Captain

Luke Palisi –
College Vice
Captain

David Cordeiro –
College Service
Captain

A large and strong field of candidates nominated for these positions. I want to thank all those boys for the manner in which they presented themselves in their speeches to the year group and in the high quality responses they made in their applications, and to the final eight for the manner in which they participated in the selection interviews.

Houses now turn their attention to electing House Captains early in Term 4.

May St Marcellin continue to watch over our boys and their families.

Yours sincerely

Mr Richard Sidorko
Headmaster

MARIST ORATORY COMPETITION 2017

For 27 years the Marist Oratory Competition has been a valued item on the calendar of Marist Schools. It is a prestigious public speaking competition involving Marist schools from Sydney, regional NSW and Canberra. This year, five boys from the College competed in the Competition which was held at St Gregory’s College, Campbelltown on Wednesday 6 September.

Keiran McKenna performed wonderfully in the Year 7 division with an entertaining and thought provoking speech on de-extinction. Daksh Tyagi from Year 9 spoke confidently and passionately on the topic, “Knowledge is power”. In the Year 10 division, Oliver Kuruc challenged the audience to consider the complexity of the conflict in the Spanish Civil War. Jeremy de Kleuver from Year 11 represented the College in the highly competitive Senior Division. His speech on the future of space exploration was well-prepared and delivered with sophistication and style. Year 11 student, Sam Perkins had the challenging job of competing in the Impromptu Division. With very little warning or ability to prepare, Sam kept a level head and delivered a highly engaging speech.

Our thanks to Ms Leanne Mogford who accompanied us on the trip and lent her expert guidance to the boys. Thank you also to Mr Neil Smith who generously gave his time to hold a coaching session with the boys during their preparation. Each boy worked extremely hard to research, prepare and rehearse their presentations.

We are immensely proud of their excellent performances and their outstanding representation of the College. This was a fabulous learning experience and we encourage all Senior School boys to consider competing next year.

MARIST STUDENTS PARTICIPATE IN ACT STEM CHALLENGE

On Friday 1 September, a team of Year 10 students reclaimed the ACT STEM Competition title. Nine students, comprising of three teams with three students each, participated in the Competition. The team comprising of Leo Ng, Alexander Trewartha and Joseph Kettle were declared the overall winners. These three students received the highest honour on the back of consistent performances across all challenges in Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics and IT, and also placed first in Mathematics.

A second team comprising Aniket Dhawan, Andrew Chan and Will Dyson came second in Chemistry.

This is the second time in the last three years of entering the Competition that the College has won. Thanks to Kirsty van der Kolk for her involvement in training the students.

ANU PROFESSOR SPEAKS TO YEAR 10 HISTORY STUDENTS

Professor Joan Beaumont from the ANU enlivened the Year 10 History Mysteries class with her challenging ideas on the significance for Australia of 1917. Drawing on her latest book, Broken Nation, she questioned the boys about their own ideas, and extended their knowledge and understanding of many of the terrible events of that year.

The boys are close to completing their entries for the Simpson Prize and were able to clarify their ideas with one of Australia's foremost authorities on the topic.

YEAR 11 FRENCH COOKING AND LANGUAGE EXCURSION

Once again, our Year 11 French class spent an amazing day at Le Très Bon Cooking School in Bungendore which is run by the French master chef, Christophe Grégoire and his wife Joséphine.

After downing a traditional French breakfast of homemade croissants and quince jam washed down with chocolat chaud, the boys were treated to a fascinating talk about patrimoine, terroir, the origins of French restaurants, and an introduction to famous French chefs of the past, Brillat Savarin, Escoffier and Marie-Antoine Carême.

After a demonstration in French by chef Christophe of how to make a perfect crème brûlée, the boys separated into groups of two to produce their own. They even had the chance to caramelize the top with a blowtorch and the results were both professional and delicious.

Then it was over to Christophe for a demonstration of how to make a perfect sauce béarnaise to accompany their pan fried eye filet steak, be it bleu, à point or bien cuit. The boys demonstrated excellent knife skills and cooked their steaks to perfection. All that remained was to sit down with their salade en vinaigrette, their frites and savour a well-deserved repas français.

The whole day was exhausting but exciting, and the challenge of hearing and speaking French all day with a native speaker was second to none!

At the time of going to press, further events are scheduled for the Year 7 students which will include a visit by the Carrousel Puppet Theatre who will perform Cinderella in Italian and French. We also plan to have an Italian breakfast for all of the Year 7 students of language to round off their first year of learning their respective languages at the College.

JUNIOR SCHOOL

FROM THE HEAD OF JUNIOR SCHOOL

Dear Parents and Carers

It's a great thing to finally feel a touch of spring in the weather. The last days and weeks of winter have brought with them a range of colds and flu and absences in both staff and the boys have been high. Be sure to take some time to care for your own and your family's health and wellbeing.

We welcome back Mr Whiting in 5S as Ms Skvorc enjoys some long service leave for the remainder of the term. Mr Brown is replacing Mr Goodman also for his leave for the rest of Term 3. Best wishes also to Susana Latukefu (who assists the staff in the Junior School) as she heads off to the International Mothers' Prayer Conference in Poland.

In other staffing news, I am happy to confirm that both Mr Jonathon McGrath and Ms Michelle Williams have accepted permanent positions at the College from 2018. As I have said previously, our enrolments are strong with a slight growth to 420 students in the Junior School in 2018. We continue to receive a number of enquiries for places in all year levels as the wait list remains active. I ask all families to make contact with the College if you are aware of a change in your circumstances for next year so that we can continue with our planning and class allocations.

Feedback from the Open Classrooms and Fathers' Day afternoon has been extremely positive. Thanks to those dads, granddads and visitors who were able to be around and spend some time with the boys in class and on the ovals after lunch. Steve Biddulph (well-known Australian parent educator) outlines the changing role of fathers as boys grow and develop. In particular, he highlights the need for male mentors in childhood and the early teenage years. These are other men in our sons' lives who can provide the support and modelling that boys look to. As quoted in 'The Guardian' (20 June 1999), "It's a challenge they cannot meet without the help of male mentors other than Dad, according to Biddulph. What a family can do only reaches to a certain point, and you can't get a kid past their mid-teens without a wider community. The mistake of a lot of parents is to think that if you're sensitive and educated enough, you can do a good job..."

It is clear that our Marist Canberra 'family' provides that mentoring and support for our boys. The level of support through positive cheering, presence and modelling at the various sporting fixtures lately has raised much comment. Of course, this is only one aspect of the support that takes place throughout the College.

Our Junior School boys are lucky to be able to have positive role models and mentors through sport, service, performing arts and especially our religious mentoring programs that have taken place recently. This work done by our community ensures that we continue to develop and produce fine young men led by the words of 'The Guide' (1853) which describes the education of children as... "above all it is to form their hearts, their wills, their consciences and their character..." (page 105).

Best wishes for a restful holiday break. We look forward to the boys' return on Monday 9 October in full summer uniform.

Kind Regards

Eamonn Moore
