

Policy Date: 1 December 2014

COPYRIGHT

STUDENT POLICY

Under special provisions that apply to Peter Moyes Anglican Community School students may;

USE A PRINT RESOURCE TO COPY:

1. 10% or one chapter of a book, or musical work, of more than ten pages, one article from a periodical or newspaper, or, more than one if they relate to the same subject.
2. The whole of a poem or play, if it is less than 15 pages in an anthology.
3. The whole of a book, play, musical or artistic work that is not separately published.
4. The whole of an artistic work, such as a photograph or diagram, that accompanies the text being copied.
5. The whole of a story, play, musical or artistic work that is not available within a reasonable time (6 months for textbooks, 30 days for other material).

However these MAY NOT be scanned or stored electronically.

USE A WEBSITE TO:

1. Copy/download 10% of the words, pictures and graphics. You MAY NOT download sound files, video clips or animations or computer software unless you have permission from the owner of the site.
2. Locate and use information on the School intranet, or email it within the School, if you acknowledge the source.
3. Some sites state that material may be used in certain conditions. Such a statement supersedes copyright regulations.
4. Provide links to a web site if you use the web site name or U.R.L. Not a logo.

USE A SOUND RECORDING TO:

Copy digital music from Creative Commons sources. iTunes does not give permission for their music to be used for educational purposes.

USE A DIGITAL RECORDING TO:

Copy and cut from a recording from a free-to-air source, or material available from 'Clickview'. However, you may not do this with a purchased DVD, or download.

USE A PODCAST TO:

Copy from programs that have been broadcast on an Australian free-to-air radio or television, and been made available on the broadcaster's website.

USE YouTube;

If it is from a free to air TV. If from another source you can provide a link to it, not stream the material.

CREATIVE COMMONS;

Look for material that is licenced under the term Creative Commons as such work can be freely used as indicated by the author.

Six Standard CC Licences are;

Attribution		Attribution	–
Attribution - non-commercial		Attribution - non-commercial share alike	–
Attribution - no derivatives		Attribution - non-commercial no derivatives	–

WHENEVER YOU USE SOMEONE ELSE'S WORK YOU

- MUST ACKNOWLEDGE THEM, EITHER IN A BIBLIOGRAPHY, OR WITHIN THE DOCUMENT YOU HAVE PRODUCED.
- YOU MAY NOT DISTORT, ALTER OR USE THE MATERIAL OUTSIDE THE AUTHOR'S INTENDED CONTEXT