

SOMERVILLE HOUSE

HONOUR BEFORE HONOURS

Teacher of Middle School English and Social Science

Position Description

The Role

Applications are invited from suitably qualified professionals for this part-time (0.7) 12 month fixed-term contract position, commencing 15 July 2019 (Term 3) to relieve a staff member on Maternity Leave.

The skills and qualities required in this position are:

- Appropriate tertiary qualifications
- Current Queensland Teacher Registration (QCT)
- Excellent knowledge of and experience with QCAA and Australian Curriculum for English, History and Geography
- Demonstrated passion and commitment for teaching and pastoral care of all students
- Well versed in the philosophies and pedagogies of middle schooling and be able to articulate innovate teaching practices
- Demonstrated interest in contemporary curriculum issues, especially those relating to girls' education
- Confident user of ICT and associated programs with the ability to use technology as an integral part of teaching and learning
- Compliance with state and federal laws, and policies of the Employer, relating to health and safety
- Ability to work in a collaborative environment.

All staff must hold a strong commitment to independent schooling in a Christian context and participate in the School's co-curricular program.

Workplace, Health and Safety is the responsibility of all employees. All employees must perform duties in accordance with the Work Health and Safety Act 2011 and the workplace, health and safety requirements of Somerville House.

Application Requirements

All applications must include the official Employment Application Form for Teachers (available under the 'Careers at Somerville House' section of our website), as well as a current Curriculum Vitae, and the contact details of three (3) professional referees.

Applicants invited for an interview must supply copies of academic transcripts at the time of interview.

Applications will be treated as confidential and must be forwarded by email to employment@somerville.qld.edu.au

The Principal
Somerville House

Applications close Tuesday 23 April 2019.