What an amazing year...

What an amazing year we have had. As I said in my Thanksgiving speech last night....Thank you.

I so very thankful, that I am able to serve each day here at St James. To our staff. Thank you. To our Students - Kindy to Year 12. Thankyou. To the parents, grandparents and caregivers. Thank you.

I encourage all of you to look for the blessings in the everyday things around you, even the mundane things. We are so blessed.

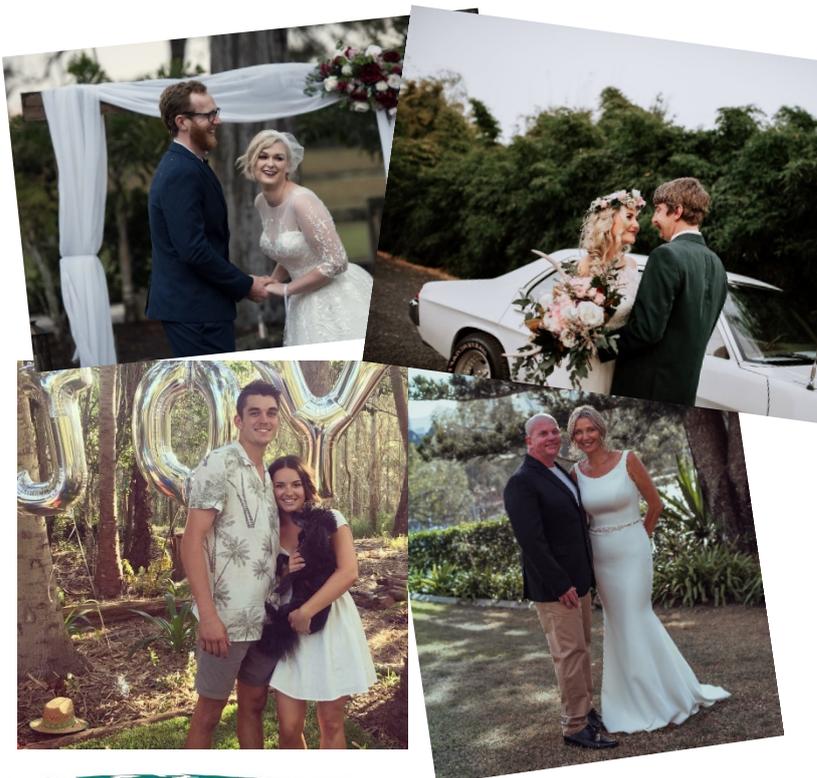

Speaking of being blessed, over the course of this year a number of our staff members have either celebrated a marriage or gotten engaged. We join in congratulating and wish God's richest blessings on the following staff members Natalie and Kurt, Julie and Allen, Maxime and Matt and Stephanie and Jack.

We also wish Mrs Brigit Naude (Prep teacher) every blessing as she takes a year's leave to be with her husband in New Zealand. We know that God will go with her as she supports Michael and his work.

And finally, as we approach the Christmas season, may we be able to stop, reflect and remember that Christ came into this world as a humble gift for us all.

God bless,

Luke Schoff

Farewell Leaving Staff...

This year, we bid farewell to a number of staff who have been with us either on a contract or in a full time capacity:

Tracey has been filling in for Dee Fuller whilst she has been on Long Service Leave this term. Tracey will continue to support the P&F next year in a voluntary capacity and running her family business, as well as pursuing her university studies.

Tracey Mason

Dan Taylor

After undertaking supply work in the Junior School, Dan was asked to take a full time contract as Mrs Mueller took her long service leave. Mr Taylor's love of children is obvious every day. He is a bit of a larrikin at heart and his nonsense is enjoyed by colleagues and students alike. We thank Mr Taylor for caretaking Mrs Mueller's class and supporting the children's learning with his experience and teaching expertise.

Carla has also been a regular relief teacher at St James and has served as a part-time teacher at the college in Semester 2. She has taught a number of classes across a variety of year levels and has enjoyed her time in a more permanent classroom environment. Carla will continue to work at the college next year in a relief capacity and we thank her for filling in on a more permanent basis this year.

Carla McGahan

Belinda will continue to be a regular relief teacher next year at St James but we would like to acknowledge the extra classes she took on this year to support our programs. We appreciate the service Belinda gives and look forward to seeing her around the school next year.

Belinda Rowley

Felicity Francis

Felicity started at St James as a casual employee, providing office support in the second half of 2017. As a consequence, she was offered a 12 month Certificate III in Business Administration traineeship, based in the St James Lutheran College front office. Felicity has now completed all of her off-the-job training, and in January, she will leave St James with a brand new qualification in Business Administration.

Kita has also been at the college this year as one of our trainees as a Teacher Assistant in the Junior and Secondary schools. She has proven herself to be a highly organized and efficient worker who has demonstrated great maturity and strength of character during her time in this role.

Maddison Fuller

Maddi was another trainee who has been learning her way through Kindy and early childhood support teaching. We wish Maddi all the best as she continues her study and work with young children next year.

Lucille White

Lucille joined the college two years ago in a part-time capacity as a Dance teacher in the secondary school. She has shown her ability to inspire her students and has built the interest and participation in the college dance program during her time at the school. Lucille has decided to return her focus to her family next year and we hope to still see her on site in a relief capacity in the future.

Tanya Mueller

Tanya has been a part of the St James community for more than 10 years. Tanya has undertaken the role of classroom teacher and as literacy and Numeracy Coach during her time here. She led the implementation of DRA for several years and has always been willing to help and mentor new staff. Her friendly nature has endeared her to many staff, families and students. We thank Tanya for the dedication she has shown to the children she has taught and the support she has been to numerous colleagues.

Genevieve Clark

Genevieve joined the team at St James in 2015 as the Head of Junior School and retires from teaching after 39 years of service in a consistent career, which is an amazing credit to her. Gen has worked in state, Catholic and Lutheran education during her time as a teacher, and has been a curriculum leader, deputy principal and a principal before moving to Hervey Bay with her husband, Barry, to prepare for their retirement, nice and close in proximity to Fraser Island. The greatest aspect of her leadership has certainly been the wise counsel and strong faith that Genevieve shares openly with her colleagues, friends and students. Her love of God, her servanthood and outstanding professionalism has been a special gift to all those in our community. Last evening at our Thanksgiving Service, we blessed Genevieve with a Bible verse that has carried her for many years and has helped her through many ups and downs: From Psalm 37:5 – “Commit your way to the Lord. Trust in Him and He will act.” God has certainly placed His trust in Gen and we are all so blessed to have known her, worked with her, cried with her, and laughed with her.... We wish both Gen and Barry the richest of God’s blessings as they begin their retired lives together.

Ann Fleming

Ann joined St James in 2011 as our first Special Education Teacher to develop and grow the support offered to students with learning needs in our college. Ann retires at the end of this year with 34 years of teaching experience under her belt and a wealth of proficiencies from working across both New Zealand and Australia. Ann has always been passionate about inclusive education and has been instrumental during her career in developing and implementing many programs and assisting organisations in their journey to integrated and inclusive learning environments. She is a committed lifelong learner herself and has an approachable friendly and warm disposition, which has allowed many St James families a confidante and trusted person on whom they could rely upon and would know that their child was in the best hands during the school day under her watch. Ann retires alongside her husband, Andy, to spend more time with her beautiful family – daughters Michelle and Melissa, and grandchildren – Ellie and Harriett who currently reside in England, and Saskia in New Zealand. We know that St James will always be in Ann’s heart as will the Camino de Santiago, a pilgrimage that Ann and Andy were both part of with our school in 2015, and again this year when they extended their trek to complete more than 800kms of the walk. We pray that God walks alongside them both and last night, we blessed Ann with this Bible Verse to reflect on, throughout her retirement and as a Camino pilgrim: From Ephesians 4:1 – “Walk in a manner worthy of the calling with which you have been called”.

From the Head of Junior School...

Saying Goodbye...

Winnie The Pooh says, "How lucky am I to have something that makes saying goodbye so hard".

Working as Head of Junior School at St James during the last 4 years has been a privilege for me and brought me many blessings. Supporting students, teachers and parents during the last four years in this beautiful environment has meant a wonderful end to my time at St James as I move into retirement activities.

The Junior School team is a committed, collaborative, happy, strong and dedicated team who are building children's skills as creators, communicator's, collaborators and critical thinkers and learners. I thank them for their enthusiasm, professionalism and friendship during my time as Head of Junior School.

I thank the beautiful children for the extraordinary way they have put a smile on my face each day. They are all charmingly unique. Wouldn't it be a boring world if they weren't?

Parents, thank you for the support and the confidence you have shown in the JS team as you hand these beautiful children over to us each day. I thank you for the trust you have shown, as we have journeyed together, keeping your children at the heart of all that we do.

It is hard to say goodbye. However, I like to think that this is not "goodbye" but "see you later". I won't be able to resist coming back to see how everyone is going. School worship has been some of the most special times for me in Junior School and dropping in on those services is something that I look forward to.

Inspiring children to learn, and empowering them to serve in their future communities, is a mission worth living. I know that Miss Champion and her team next year will continue to live out the mission with passion.

My prayer is that I continue to inspire hearts and minds and serve my Lord and Saviour as I travel a new road. I am thankful that God has great plans for me, just as he has great plans for each of you.

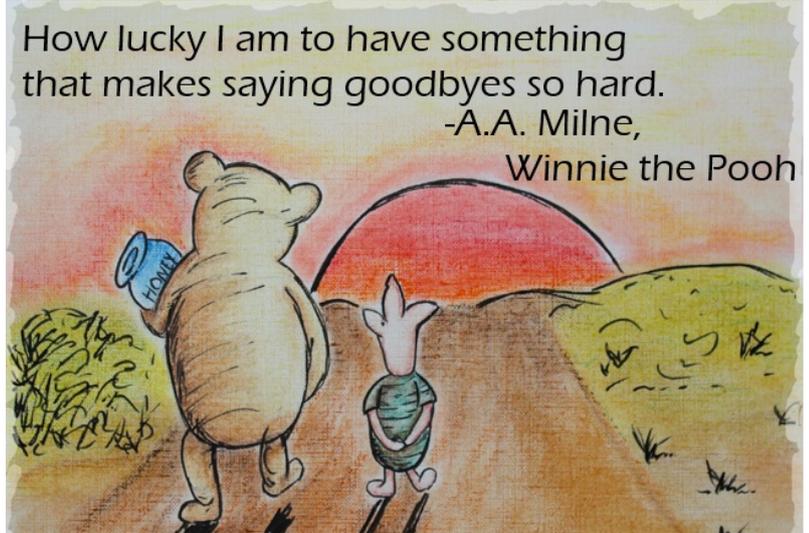

I pray that God continues to bless the St James community as he has blessed me in being a part of it. THANKYOU and See you later!

Blessings,

Genevieve Clark

The season to give!

What wonderful kids we have; students who just want to give and keep on giving. Over the past few weeks there has been a year 6 class that walked over to Fair Haven Aged Care to decorate their community room for Christmas. But it was more than that. The conversations with the residents and the sense of having contributed by the year 6s demonstrates the proverb - 'tis better to give than to receive.'

Last week the Year 10 class also joined them for the afternoon to make Christmas cards and decorations. Again, the activity was just the catalyst for amazing conversations that were about more than the weather. It was a joy too to hear from Izzy Foster and Kai Stack as they entertained us all with a few tunes on the piano. Some students, in a somewhat grumbling way, asked as we walked to Fairhaven, "How long will we be here?" But an hour later they could have stayed on longer. Such is the joy that comes from looking beyond ourselves and giving to others.

When we give of ourselves, we often do not know the full impact of what we do or say. However, on this occasion we were reminded of this fact as we heard of one resident who had not smiled all day, but during our visit her face was beaming.

What we think is small and insignificant can have a huge impact on others.

The 25 plus baskets of Christmas goodies students contributed to the We Care 2 hampers were dedicated and prayed over at the Primary Chapel last Thursday. Along with Jan Carlson we also prayed for the recipients of the hampers. Jan reminded us of the hope that these baskets will give. A few of the year 11s helped load these baskets into the van from We Care 2 Friday morning and were delighted to meet and chat with staff from We Care 2 including Pastor David Davies.

About a dozen students have taken up the offer to help at their distribution centre next week to see the service they provide and see the hope that these small acts give to the families receiving them. Once again, a small act that will have a huge impact on both the giver and the receiver. Jesus tells us that to feed the hungry is like being his own hands and feet on the earth.

God has also given us a gift, the gift of a saviour-Jesus. Jesus was born in the town of Bethlehem in the back room of a home full of family of the descendants of the second king of Israel, King David. This happened when Quirinius was governor for the Roman Empire about 2018 years ago. On this day, God gave us humans a way to be made right again with Himself. He gave us hope that when we pass from this life, we will inherit the joy of life eternal with God. Why would one reject this act of Grace?

This seemingly small act impacts all our existence one way or another.

There are many opportunities to hear more about God's amazing grace this Christmas Season at the various churches in our town. At St James we gather at 7pm on Christmas Eve and then at 8:30am Christmas Day. You are very welcome to come and hear Pastor Tim bringing you the good news this Christmas. You are certainly encouraged to attend any of the churches in Hervey Bay. Look on their websites or check out the local papers for times.

Merry Christmas, God Bless you and thank you for your generosity this past year.

David Grieger.

Christian Life Week Summer Camps...

These exciting and uplifting camps are on again and are open to students from year 3 through to year 11. There are a number of camps that are on offer and held at the Sunshine coast at Luther Heights Camp site and the surrounding areas. Morgan spoke to the senior school chapel this week about her amazing experiences at these camps. Many students from St James have been to these camps over the years and they just keep going back. That is how good they are. Registrations close 26th November. <https://lyq.org.au/camps-events/2018>

Santa

He only comes on that one special night
And delivers presents to his delight.

With a sack on his back with lots of glee,
Down the chimney he floats as slow as can be.

As he creeps through your house on the top of his toes
With his big red belly and rosy red nose

With stockings filled with candy and toys;
Oh! What a sight it was to girls and boys.

Cookies and milk placed on the table with care
He ate it all up with not a moment to spare.

As he did his last touch-ups before the sun rose
He flew away with three Ho, Ho, Ho's.
