RE: Private Music Tuition at St James Lutheran College 2019

Dear Families,

Learning an instrument, or to sing, is a fun and exciting way for students to grow in self-confidence and self-direction, as well as practice important life-long learning skills. At the College students are able to access private music tuition. Lessons will occur during the school day and may be rotated so that students do not miss the same classes each week unless a set time has been agreed upon with your child's teacher.

We are pleased to advise that Monique Brown, Catherine Murphy, and Adrian Williams will be with us once again in 2019. We also welcome back Twila Whittingham, Twila returns to us after having a year's leave. The College is also excited to have Kellie List & Lachlan Court join the music team.

Kellie offers lessons for strings students and will take over the leadership of the ensemble. Kellie has a wealth of experience teaching music as well as performing.

Lachlan comes to us from Tasmania, he is fully qualified music teacher and specialises in piano. Lachlan has an extensive music background; he has been involved in performing and leading groups, providing individual tuition, composing and developed music programs.

If you are interested in enrolling your child/children for instrumental tuition, please complete the attached form and return it to myself via the College Office. Your tutor will contact you shortly after this, to arrange lesson times and payment.

Please note, when enrolling your child/children for extra-curricular music tuition, you are entering an agreement with the tutor. Please comply with the tutor's protocols for payment, cancellations, absences or withdrawals from lessons. The college shall not enter into disputes about the payment of private lesson fees.

Please find below the details for tuition including instruments and associated cost as outlined below:
