

Zhengzhou Foreign Language School (ZZFLS)

Zhengzhou Foreign Language School (ZZFLS) is a partner school of Peninsula Grammar in Australia and is currently seeking an English as an Additional Language (EAL) Teacher to work in China, Zhengzhou from 2019-2020.

Offering a premier co-education program, Zhengzhou Foreign Language School (ZZFLS) pioneers the development and customization of international education for Chinese students aged 16-18 years who wish to pursue further undergraduate study abroad in Australia.

Conditions of Work

This position will be employed in accordance with a contract of negotiable length. (See below for details.) This EAL teaching role will join a talented team of professionals and will manage a class to ensure high academic quality is delivered. This role requires the candidate to work 5 days per week; each class is 40 minutes; a maximum of 16 classes per week is required to be taught by this position. Students will be in Grades 10-12 with approximately 30 students in each class. The employer will be the Zhengzhou Foreign Language School (ZZFLS), not Peninsula Grammar.

Skills and Attributes Required for the Position

The applicant should have a warm, flexible and open personality and a genuine interest in young people and excellent cross cultural communication skills. The applicant is required to satisfy the following selection criteria:

- Competency in teaching English as an Additional Language (EAL)
- Experience in teaching EAL, a comprehensive English course focusing on writing and literature
- Experience in delivering regular lessons and demonstration classes to students with a high standard of English
- Experience in effectively scheduling classes, extra-curricular activities and events
- Experience in developing teaching plans to effectively deliver the EAL subject
- Ability to work closely with team members and teaching supervisors to ensure effective communication and to guarantee the quality of teaching
- Experience in assisting new teachers to develop course syllabus
- Interest and knowledge of the Chinese culture
- Independence and resilience
- Cross cultural communication skills.

Qualifications

A bachelor's degree or above with at least 2 years working experience.

TEFL or TESOL, teaching licence or equivalent is required.

Native English speaker preferred.

Salary Package

- $16-18K (11-month paid not including July summer vacation). Negotiable based on background and working experience. 12-month salary review to renew contract and no less than 90 points of teaching evaluation.

- Initial contract is for one academic year with possible renewal.
- Paid holiday leave, winter vacation is included
- Free apartment with furniture and electrical devices provided
- Basic health insurance is provided
- Access to internet at school and in accommodation
- Z-Visa valid for one year.

Reporting to

You would be directed in your training, orientation and academic work by a team of staff from Peninsula Grammar. Your daily arrangements at school will be managed by the Zhengzhou Foreign Language School (ZZFLS).

Holiday Periods

July and August are the months of summer holidays. Actual start and finish dates vary from year to year and province to province in China and are only announced in June each year. There are shorter national holidays in May and October.

Dates for initial contract

Start date: As soon as possible in 2019

End date for initial and renewable contract: to be confirmed end of 2020.

Applications to include

1. A brief cover letter
2. A CV
3. A copy of passport information page
4. Copy of your degree / non-criminal record check (both are authorised by the Chinese Consulate)
5. Recent digital photo (passport-size)
6. Copy of TESOL / TEFL / CELTA Certificate (if available)
7. Demo class video / PowerPoint

Contact person in Australia:

Lucy Gowdie - Deputy Principal Future Learning and Curriculum, Peninsula Grammar School

Email: lgowdie@pgs.vic.edu.au

Ph: 03 9788 7643

Contact person in China:

Alice Qin

Wechat: Alice Qin 13523014102

Email: qinqin7733@163.com